

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 11, 1916

Editorial Brevities.

It is expected that there will be a meeting in the interest of the Patriotic Fund on Tuesday evening, Oct. 24th. Place and speakers will be announced later.

Owing to circumstances which we find ourselves unable to control we are obliged to issue THE ACADIAN in an abridged form this week. Our advertisers and readers will please excuse. Next week we trust our paper will resume its usual appearance.

Free Advertising.

One of the best articles on the subject of what may justly be termed gratuity after the newspaper man's stock in trade appeared recently in The Editorialist, the statements being credited to the Detroit Herald.

"Nobody ever thinks of going to the coal dealer and asking him to send a little coal up to the church or lodge room to heat up the building for a meeting or entertainment. Nor does one ask the ice cream man to donate ice cream, nor does one suggest that the electric light company furnish lights for the occasion. But people often express surprise and resentment when the newspaper man asks remuneration for an advertising notice relative to aforesaid meeting or entertainment.

If the coal dealer or the ice cream man or the electric light company should voluntarily donate said coal, ice cream or lights, the recipients thereof would be exceedingly grateful, and would probably instruct the newspaper man to run a free notice telling the public all about the generosity of the aforesaid coal dealer, ice cream man or electric light company. But nobody runs a notice eulogizing the newspaper man. For free advertising, especially of the reading notice brand—which by the way, is the most expensive in time and labor—is taken for granted, as the natural gift.

The editor very gladly gives a certain amount of complimentary space to charitable and other organizations weekly. He gives this freely to the exact limit of space available. This complimentary service means work for the compositor and work for the make-up man. It is work absolutely without hope of reward. And there is in this community persons so devoid of appreciation of courtesies extended that not only do they fail to express gratitude for favors shown, but on occasion feel it incumbent upon themselves to haul out the editor if perchance he does not allow them the quota of space they consider their natural right. If the butcher should present them with a fine juicy steak on Friday night, would these same persons visit his shop on Saturday morning and roast him to a turn because the steak was not sufficiently large for their entire families?

The newspaper man's space is just as much his stock-in-trade as the coal dealer's coal, the ice cream man's ice cream, the electric light company's electricity or the butcher's meats. The average man never thinks of the hours of toil—sweating toil—it takes to get out a paper. He never thinks of the worries, trials and tribulations every editor must undergo. Every line of type in a newspaper represents labor that costs money and there is a lot of money tied up in type, presses and other equipment. Paper and ink, rent, heat, light, power and insurance must be paid for out of the income derived from the newspaper man's stock-in-trade.

Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, commander of the first British battle cruiser squadron, whose ships defeated the Germans in the North Sea, has made a stirring appeal for a great religious revival in England as a necessary step to victory in the war. In a letter read at the annual convention of the Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, he writes: "Surely Almighty God does not intend this war to be just a hideous fracas or a blood-drunken orgy. There must be a purpose in it; improvement must come out of it. In what direction? France has already shown us the way and has risen out of her ruined cities with a revival of religion that is wonderful. Russia has been welded into a great part. England still remains to be taken out of the stupor of self-satisfaction and complacency into which her flourishing condition has stepped her. Until she can be stirred out of this condition, until a religious revival takes place, just so long will the war continue. When she can look on the future with humbler eyes and a prayer on her lips then we can begin to count the days toward the end."

The Death of John Grierson.

FORMER CITY MISSION WORKER AND MISSIONARY TO COREA DIED AT HIS HOME IN HALIFAX.

Mr. John Grierson, a former resident of Kentville and well known in this town also, died at his home, 51 Charles street, Halifax, October 3rd. He was a former city mission worker, and missionary at one time to Corea for the Presbyterian Church of Canada. Mr. Grierson was in the 89th year of his age. He is survived by two sons and two daughters. The sons are Frank, of the Finance Department, Ottawa, who had recently enlisted in a siege battery and is training at Valcartier, and Dr. Robert Grierson, who is a missionary at present in Corea. The daughters are Mary and Frances, both teachers at Albro street school. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Grierson was a native of Kirkpatrick, Durham, Scotland, and came to Nova Scotia in early youth. He settled first at Kentville. On removal to Halifax he took up city mission work, later branching into home mission work among the lumber camps of the Province. Following that Mr. Grierson went to Labrador, and from there he was sent to Corea, where he remained for a year and a half in the mission fields. During that time he helped establish the mission of which his son, Dr. Robert Grierson, afterward took charge. At one time, for about eleven years, he was a superintendent of the Halifax Industrial School, and for a long time he was secretary of the Nova Scotia Sunday School Association.

In his death a striking figure has been removed from the Presbyterian mission work in Nova Scotia. Mr. Grierson was a man of great strength of character, always stood for what he thought was right, and was exceedingly faithful in his religious life.

Mr. Frank W. Barteaux spent Sunday with friends in Wolfville.

Rev. A. C. Borden will preach at Sheffield Mills next Sunday at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Gerald Bauld spent the holiday in Halifax, returning to Wolfville Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Earl Fraser, Gasperau avenue, will receive for the first time since her marriage, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Thursday afternoon and Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Waldo B. Davidson, who has spent the summer with a government survey party in Quebec, returned home on Monday to resume his work with the engineering class at Acadia.

Mrs. John B. Gertridge (nee Miss Annie Martin) will receive for the first time since her marriage on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, October 24th and 25th, at her residence, Gasperau.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Davidson received word on Monday that their son, Private Paul W. Davidson, recently reported in hospital wounded, at Liverpool, England, would lose his right leg. No further particulars are at hand.

The Xmas stockings for our Canadian soldiers are ready for distribution and can be obtained, by those wishing to fill them, at the Red Cross rooms which are opened on Monday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. Mrs. Julia Blakey, of Halifax, announces the engagement of her daughter, Frieda Lawson, to Albert J. Barnes, of the Maritime Tel & Tel Co., son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Barnes, South Park street, Halifax. The wedding will take place at Wolfville, Wednesday, October 18th.

All intending to send Christmas presents to our soldiers are requested to leave them at the vacant store next Rand's Drug store. Presents must be in before the 25th of this month, properly done up and addressed. By order Red Cross Committee.

A Song Before Battle. We, who have clung for long, long months To battered lines of knee-deep mud, Fixed targets for your slope-set guns To drench the ooze with British blood; We, who have toiled through winter's rain With sandbag, shovel, plank and wire, Revetting marshy parapets, Building protection from your fire, We have weapons now, O Hunns! Rifles, all yes, but worthier still How like you thrust and stab and blow? And you shall find for all your guns (The earth is ploughed with ours, you know) That we can jab the silent sword With hands exultant, freed at last From digging, digging night and day. The months of holding on are past; We are coming now, O Hunns!

We, who have crouched as you sailed by Above our furrowed, pock marked soil Spitting our weakness for your guns, See no one of you now to spoil Our free enjoyment of the skies; You fire blindly from below; We force you to creep up the hills, And from the last prim crest you go, We are rising now, O Hunns! Your turn to last beneath our guns, Your turn to last beneath our guns, We are bursting in, we are breaking through; The great sea sweeps your barriers down You urge anew your claim on God, But He is silent as you drown. Look to yourselves, O Hunns! —The Somme Valley, Aug. 1, 1916.
