when a person, young or old, through overwork, worry, intense excitement, grief, alcoholic or other excesses, or from other recent or known causes, has overstrained and exhausted the nervous system, and as the result, does not sleep well, wakes up tired, is depressed, tearful, inclined to perspire at the least irritation, has indigestion, lack of appetite, and is, to sum up in a phrase, entirely unstrung. Such conditions are evident to everyone, and are common in every family, and can by early treatment of brief duration by this preparation, with its threefold effect of feeding the nerve tissue, enabling sleep to be obtained and food to be desired and digested, be quickly overcome.

The reasons why Catarrhozone cure when other treatments fail are ver simple In the first place Catarrho zone reaches the true source of the disease. Very few, if any, of the o dhary cures can do this. Catarrho zone is carried along with the air you breathe through the mouth, throat and bronchial tubes. Its antiseptic vapor at once kills any germs that may be lurking in these air passages No matter how remote these germ may be they can't possibly escape Catarrhozone; it goes everywhere the air you breathe goes, and no air cel. or air passage can escape its healing influence. The strong point about Catarrhozone is its ability to go direc to the spot where the Catarrh germ is working. The Most Valuable Contribution Ar Editor Ever Refused.

One of the most remarkable experinces that ever befell an editor, says the Manchester Guardian, was the late Frederick Greenwood's when the Pall Mall Gazette was sold from under him. There came to him the next day at the Garrick Club-so Mr. Stead told the story several years ago in the Review of Reviews-an officer of the Guards, looking very nervous and ill at ease. "Mr, Greenwood, l believe?" "Yes," said Mr. Greenwood "Very sorry to hear ...... Good paper. Shall miss it badly. Must not be alowed to drop. Very sorry." Mr. Greenwood thanked him, but the visitor went on: "Some of us at the Guards' Club talked it over last night. Said you would want money. Have not much; put a little together brought it down. We don't want any receipt. It is for the paper.' Thereupon he handed the astonished journalist a cheque for £1,100, which he could not, however, be prevailed upon to take-probably the most valuable contribution that any editor declined with thanks. By the end of the day Greenwood had received in cheques and promises no less than £104,-000 towards the starting of a new pa per. He was able, as it turned out to establish the St. James' Gazette without accepting a penny of
