406th Day of the War Latest From the Front. Messages Received Previous to 9 A.M.

OFFICIAL.
LONDON, Sept. 13.
 The Governor, Newfoundland:
 There have been further air raids on the East Coast.
 The French Government reports continued artillery fighting. Attempted German attacks have been checked at various points.
 The Russian Government reports a German advance on the road to Divinsk and Russian retirement. At the Niemen salient near Tarnopol, the Russians captured over 4,300 prisoners and nine machine guns, obtaining minor successes at other points.

BONAR LAW.
LONDON BUDGET.
LONDON, Sept. 13.
 By one of those battering offensives which although costly in men and munitions, have invariably been successful, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's army has at last set foot on the Rovno-Petrograd Railway between Vilna and Drinsk.

The whole of the Austro-German forces have been striving to gain this railway since the fall of Warsaw. The offensive which began towards the end of the last week was carried from three directions upon Drinsk and the railway on either side of the town, while further south the invaders advanced toward Vilna. The Russians, before superior forces, supplied with the usual mass of artillery, were yesterday forced back to the lake district which the railway penetrates, and are now making a stand there. Simultaneously the Germans pushed their way eastward towards Slonim Pinsk, both of which are on the roads which join the main railway line, while the Austrians, with whom there are many German units, are fighting hard to reach Rovno, the southern terminus of the line. With this railway partially in the hands of the Germans, the Russians will probably be compelled to make a further retirement, although their offensive in Galicia, which continues, might save them by compelling the Germans to send reinforcements to this region. There is now no doubt of Russian successes in this district, as, following the Austrian admission of their retirement, the Germans to-night announce that after repulsing Russian attacks they occupied a "favorable position situated some kilometres west of our former positions." The conditions under which the troops are fighting in marshy country in the centre on the southern end of the line, are described by German correspondents as most terrible. The country is practically all under water, through which the Austro-Germans have to advance against well prepared Russian positions. The eastern bank of the Sereth, from which the Russians are delivering their counter-attacks, is a veritable fortress, from which the Russians emerge every time their opponents approach, taking heavy toll of them in killed, wounded and prisoners. According to Russian accounts nearly 30,000 prisoners have been taken in the fighting along this river.

Operations in the west are marked by the continuance of a great artillery battle from Belgium to the Ardennes. The duel between guns of all calibres along the entire front has been particularly violent around Arras. In the Argonne and Champagne after a heavy bombardment, attempted to storm the advanced trenches of the allies, but French reports say these attacks all failed. Fighting of a somewhat similar character is proceeding along the Austro-Italian front.

The session of the British Parliament, which opens on Tuesday, will be chiefly occupied with arrangements to finance the war. This will include the levy of new taxes. However, under the British system, whereby ministers can be questioned and debates raised, many other matters will be discussed. Compulsory service is certain to come up for consideration, and on this the cabinet is said to be divided.

ALLIES AND FINANCE.
PARIS, Sept. 13.
 Pierre Bark, the Russian Minister of Finance, in Bucharest to-day, according to a telegram received from that point. The Roumanian Government placed at his disposal a special train to take him to the Bulgarian frontier. M. Bark is on his way to Paris and London, to confer with Alexandre Ribot, the French Minister of Finance, and Reginald McKenna, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer.

BERNSTORFF CONFERS WITH LANSING.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.
 Count Von Bernstorff was back in Washington to-day for a conference with Secretary of State Lansing on the situation developed by the sinking of the Arabic. The Ambassador, it was understood, would begin an informal discussion with Lansing, which would be supplementary to the German note on the Arabic, with the hope of opening the way to negotiations for an amicable adjustment. The German view, it was said, was that an agreement could be reached to arbitrate the question of reparations for American lives lost on the ship, inasmuch as the Berlin note has renewed assurances that submarine commanders had been ordered not to attack peaceful liners without warning.

VIOLATED INSTRUCTIONS.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.
 Germany's explanation of the unsuccessful attempt to destroy the Cunard liner Orduna, on July 9th, is that the submarine commander violated his instructions, which were not to attack the liner, but that because of the weather he was unable to make a torpedo attack. The character of the national flag of the Orduna was bound from Liverpool to New York with some 200 passengers, of whom twenty-two were Americans. She was attacked by a torpedo, which barely missed her, and then was shelled by the submarine until she was out of range. The German explanation, which comes in the form of a note, was laid before President Wilson to-day by Secretary Lansing.

REGARDS SITUATION AS GRAVE.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.
 President Wilson to-day expressed his view of the gravity of the international situation which confronts the United States, to a delegation of Virginians. Declining their invitation to visit Manassas battlefield late this month, he said: "We are all hoping and praying that the skies may clear, but we have no control of that on this side of the water. It is impossible to predict any part of the course of affairs."

THE DUMBA CASE.
GENEVA, Sept. 13.
 Vienna morning newspapers are replete with leading articles and news concerning Dr. Dumba, the Austrian Ambassador to the United States, considering the affair one of vital interest. From these articles it would appear that the request for his recall has divided Austro-Hungarian statesmen into two camps. Those of the party of Baron Burian, the Foreign Minister, apparently are persuaded that Ambassador Dumba acted under the influence of Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador without orders from the Home Government. The Hungarian party, on the contrary, believes that Dumba did his duty, in order to prevent arms and ammunition reaching the Powers of the Quadruple Entente. It is gleaned from newspaper articles that Emperor Francis Joseph was displeased when he learned that action had been taken by the States. It is declared likewise that telegrams somewhat bitter in tone have been exchanged on the subject between Foreign Minister British and Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Chancellor. The question of a diplomatic rupture with the States is being discussed in the press.

URGENT APPEAL ISSUED.
SOFIA, Sept. 13.
 An urgent appeal to the nation has been issued by a group of Bulgarian men of note, to support the opposition demand for convocation of the Bulgarian Parliament, "with a view to preventing action contrary to the country's centuries old traditions." The centuries long traditions of the Bulgarians, as of other Balkan nations, have consisted of uncompromising opposition to the Turks as the usurpers and tyrants of Europe. As there have been many evidences of late that the Bulgarian Government, presumably under the leadership of King Ferdinand, is leaning strongly to the side of the Germans and Austrians, and necessarily, therefore, on the side of the Turks, it would seem that the opposition in parliament, demanding the convening of the chamber, is opposed to giving any assistance to the Turks. Only since the second Balkan war has Bulgaria become so violently opposed to Greece and Serbia, as almost to forget her age-long hatred of the Turk. It could hardly be said, therefore, that the centuries old traditions spoken of refers to this more recent policy of the opposition to other Balkan nations.

GENERAL DISMISSED.
LONDON, Sept. 13.
 A despatch from Amsterdam says that Emperor William has dismissed General Von Kluge, Commander of the Eighth Division, who was held responsible for the Austro-German check by the Russians on the Sereth River, in East Galicia.

PERICARIOUS POSITION.
ATHENS, Sept. 13.
 An American citizen of standing in Athens, has received advices from Constantinople, which he says are trustworthy, to the effect that the situation of the Turkish army and Government is unfavorable. According to the information, the position of the Turkish forces, defending the Dardanelles, is precarious. It is said the Turkish front is thinned by the heavy losses which the fighting has entailed on both sides, and is finding it increasingly difficult to hold the lines against the French and British.

REPORTED NAVAL BATTLE.
ROME, Sept. 13.
 A battle between Italian and Austrian naval forces, the former assisted by French submarines, occurred on Thursday last in the Adriatic Sea, the Ministry of Marine announced to-day. One Austrian torpedo boat was damaged seriously.

BRITISH STEAMER LOST.
LONDON, Sept. 13.
 Lloyd's reports that the British steamer Ashmore has gone ashore and sunk. Four of the crew are missing, the remainder are saved. The last report of the steamer Ashmore in available shipping records was that she sailed from Monte Video on August for St. Vincent, Cape Verde.

NEUTRAL SHIP FIRED ON.
LONDON, Sept. 13.
 An attack with gunfire on a neutral ship by a German submarine, is reported in a despatch from Christiania. The submarine is said to have fired upon the Norwegian ship Presto, with a cargo of wood on last Friday. The crew was saved.

THE MIGHTY BARD.

Bill Shakespeare spent his toilsome days producing deathless pomes and plays; brought h i m twenty pounds a year, which barely bought his cheese and beer. As actor, in the after times, he piled up quite a roll of dimes, but in his early years he felt an aching void beneath his belt. No doubt the alecks used to say, as they watched William go his way, "It is an evil thing, in sooth, to see him fool away his youth! His pen he ought to cease to jerk, and start to do some useful work. He has a hundred chances now; the farmers shriek for men to plow, the tanner raised a frightful yelp this morn because he can't get help, the landlord of the Blue Boar inn needs an assistant dishing gin, the owner of the chow-chow works is howling for a dozen clerks. And still that trifling Shakespeare sink does naught but fool with pen and ink! 'Tis shame that he is running loose; he should be in the calaboose." In every clime, in every age, has genius heard the alecks rage. To-day, when some one tries to write, or paint a picture out of sight, the sad bystanders rise and say, "He should get busy baling hay!"

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?
 "Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."
 "That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."
 Zylex, 50c. a box; Zylex Soap, 25c. a cake.

Your Boys and Girls.
 There are many people who expect children to be naughty when the restraining influence of the parents is removed. But what is the matter with those children who are just as good when the "cats away" as they are at other times? You might think there is something uncanny about such children. But really they are quite normal and full of fun. I know them myself and can say that they have the same instincts for play and mischief as other children. Yet there is a difference. And the difference is in the attitude of the parents, especially of the mother, toward the play of the children. The mother has learned to suppress her own instinct to say "don't" every time one of the children starts to do something that is not on her program. The children have the impulse to do a thousand things that seem foolish to you and me, but most of them are quite harmless and need not be stopped unless the adults are very selfish and irritable.
