Most keen was our grief when the sad news was broken Which told us death's angel to his did appear; One whom we cherished with friendshins unbroken Whose word was his bond, and whose heart was sincere. His good natured smile and his welcome so cheery

What his right hand performed, his left one didn't know it He gave not for love of his kindnes Ah, "Mike" there are many to-day and they show it The grief which they feel since your spirit has flown. May God above strengthen your sis ters and brother

To bear your great loss, for you lov-They find it is hard now their sorrow to smother For their whole heart's affections were centered in you.

Gone, yes he's gone. and we hope he's in Heaven, Clear of this world with its sorrow and gloom; and groom;
The kindness he showed us, our sorrow 'twill leaven
And our love we'll hold green, as the grass o'er his tomb.
