y New Juther Complications

ench Violate Lausanne Arrangement -British Will Adhere to Programme -Final Session Being Held To-day.

LAUSANNE. Tau 80

OF THE LOT.

H. N. Soci

stake

Arrival ....

will count as a

ring from N

Total Catch.

Seal or Seals. al or Steamer's

EACH

000000

RY CLASS

rch, on 1st.

y J. R. Bend for 70c.

attendance.

6/0/0/0/0/0/

on Tuesday ult was as

Chancey,

Healey, care

med, awaits

Wade, 67

SON

NELL

sidered the decision of the flagrant violation of the unreached between the Alions decided to do. The orks asked for further time to treaty, the Conference n, but the plenipoten-

TIVAL SESSION TO-DAY. LAUSANNE, Jan 30.

Eastern Conference will be morrow morning at 19.30 o'the quaint little Chateau of Whether there will be a runadjournment equivalent to moot questions to-The Turkish delegates informread for a few days. The Turks ious over the treaty as it now. and the indications tonight tat the Turks tomorrow would hostages; the other puts into | rate of exchange.

homas's Mission. MOWLL ADDRESSES

parish church of St. did. It was a little servant maid who gious services, but seldom country who made wonderful cures. last evening. The pen of a the man of God. The cleasing of the could hardly do justice to it. Leper in the waters of Jordan was we than an hour and a half dwelt upon, and the preacher emphacongregation—for the spa- sized the point that as the valiant edifice was crowded to its ut- warrior of old found a remedy in the apacity, and hundreds were waters of the sacred river, the sinner gain admittance—gave its now can find pardon and grace in the prelate who in the the blood of the crucified One. language, yet in a manner | Naaman made mistakes, just as they could understand, spoke of are made to-day, but if we will acconsequences and remedy. cept the outstretched hand of the ess of sin was apparent. Savious, our guilt will be washed the preacher said, "we are all away and we will become as pure as but there was also a hum- little children. The horribleness of of spirit, and a yearning for sin, lying, theft, drunkeness, unwhich can only be found in cleaness and the many others in our Long before the priests and midst was laid bare, but there was appeared every seat was occu-and the ushers had more than is a cure. After a discourse of forty wild do to accommodate the minutes, which did not seem much The Rector, Rev. E. C. Earp, longer than so many seconds, the Canon Field, and the Rev. congregation kneeling sang-Lightbourn assisted. The The book his text from 5th Chapter lings, versus 11 and 15, "Behold might" and "Behold now I know," opened by stating that there is the difference in the world beautiful and certainty. The man centered around the life of the life of the life was a life with the life of the life of the life was a an. He was the most brilliant gist of his day and had led then gave "The Message of God cono victory; he was not only a cerning the need, the way, and the seneral but the bravest of sol-he was most popular with the was closely followed, God says, "To as we know it; the boys and ceive Him, and that by receiving Him of his country no doubt I become one of God's children, and to see their popular hero so have all sings forgiven." "When aimed him a great one. But the Lord Jesus died on the cross, God onderful leader was a Leper. Lord Jesus as sin-bearer means that as afflicted with the most dread- I accept this fact and confessing that ly disease of the Old Testa- I am a lost guilty sinner, I ask God mes. He noticed the first and trust Him to pardon from all of the terrible scourge and sin, not because I deserve it, but beand that for him there was a ring illness of the most loathikind, and then a terrible death. Bishop's word picture of the Sovereign. To receive the Lord that Indian grant the sovereign. the lindish girl who was just Jesus as Sovereign means to sur-Indian girl who was just to graduate and then be married as of the Christian princes when was pronounced suffering from tarful malady, casting all her it hopes and aspirations to the ad, was graphic and impressive.

It is utterly impossible in the time and space available to give anything like an adequate description of the impressive service. The Bishop is an intellectual giant, holds the minages was likened to give anything an intellectual giant, holds the minages was likened to give anything an intellectual giant, holds the minages was likened to give anything an intellectual giant, holds the minages was likened to give anything an intellectual giant, holds the minages was likened to give anything and give anything any give any was likened to sin of the oday, and as the valiant soluted that a cure could only be in Jehovah, so must Christians that only the blood of Jesus of the out their sin. It is the little that often count. We sow a count place of the count of

TO REMAIN AT LAUSAN- effect the compulsory exchange of Turks signed a special protocol agreeing that when special peace was signer at a late hour among the Allied to return to Greece all the ablebodied ves when the French de- male Greeks who have been held sinc announced it had decided to the Greek rout in Asia Minor and the in Lausanne as long as there Smyrna tragedy. The protocol effechope of carrying on success- ted one hundred thousand Greeks.

FRENCH LABOR PROTESTS.

PARIS, Jan 30. The French Federation of Labor days that all would leave at the opening to-day of the annual the end of the week if meeting, with six hundred delegates not sign tomorrow. All in attendance, voted a resolution prodelegates announced of testing against "the repressive measonight they would adhere ures, imprisonments and arbitrary nme whatever the other searches" in the Ruhr.

tatement last week said, if WILL BREAK GERMAN STUBBOR-

LONDON, Jan. 30. General Gegoutte, in a statement to rould be ready to return to the Press at Dusseldorf this morning that negotiations could be Evening News correspondent, that ience has no limits," and added, that the Allies occupying Ruhr "will carng heralded final session to ry out their plans and will break the stubborness of their adversaries."

MINERS AGAINST GENERAL

LONDON, Jan. 30. The Miners Union in the Ruhr Valley, says a Havas despatch from Dus-Associated Press that they seldorf, have unanimously rejected the proposal for a general strike, adopt-Allied draft of the Treaty, and ing a resolution instead protesting that these suggestions might against nationalist intrigue.

ASQUITH AS ARBITRATOR.

LONDON, Jan. 30. a attitude which would place that former Premier Asquith has been growing out of the Lausanne of the debt due Canada for munitions were signed between Turk- and other war materials. The main Greece to-day. One provides point in dispute is whether Great Britnutual return of prisoners of ain is to pay the current or normal > and the Bishop appealed to the con- a bottle. Get some candies at our Candy gregation to take stock as Naaman been one to compare with the supreme thing for him was to ind of the series of Mission find a cure and so acting on the sug-ing of the B. I. S. Ladies' Auxilionducted by the brilliant gestion of a child, the brilliant gening on Wednesday, Jan. 31st, at his Lordship Bishop eral and brave soldier set out to see 8.30. ESTHER M. DOYLE, Sec.

Feild College Sociable.

RETURN PARTY AND DANCE.

friends. The prizes in an elimination liams and Miss Cherrington.

tre, Wednesday, Jan. 31st. At the conclusion the Missioner

Bell Island Mines.

WORKINGS TO BE RESCMED SHORTLY.

To day the Bishop has another trenuous day. At 7 this morning there was a celebration of Holy Communion; at 4 this afternoon there will be a sermon for women only. At this the ladies of other parishes will has arrangement practically finalized have an opportunity to attend, as the for

New O'Brien Play Possesses Unusual Plot Construction.

An unusual departure in plot features O'Brien's new Selznick picture, "Is ed to:-Life Worth Living?" which to-day will Toronto, Jan. 19, (Star Special.)be the featured attraction at the Majestic Theater.

It is the customary thing to have a chap, finds himself enchanted by no less a person than mere despondent he one of the best plays in which O'- are operating at Sydney, both rod and Brien has appeared.

Winifred Westover is seen as Lois

Westover there is a large cast which the coal it can produce. includes the names of Arthur Houseman, a "heavy" of wide repute; Warren Cook, George Lessey, Flora Kings-

McMurdo's Store News.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 31. Ely's Cream Balm has an enviable reputation in the United States and Canada for cold in the head and catarrh and might well be used more generally in Newfoundland, where disorders of this kind are so common especially at this time of the year. The Balm is most soothing to the irritated and inflamed mucous surfaces, acts as an antiseptic to overcome the germs a character and rean a destiny. The of catarrh, and usually cuts short the trivialities become deadly sins often, attack of coryga or catarrh. Price 70c.

Counter to-day. All fresh Chocolates as been the scene of many told him of the Prophet in her own and other candies. Attractive prices.

> The senior pupils of Feild College, gave a return party and dance in Spencer College last night to the elder pupils of Spencer College, and their seating capacity will not be crowded, Wabana next week on a scale sufand at 8 to-night the Mission will be ficient to take care of acute cases of

of Eugene construction is one of the The following is the interview refer screen hero dangle his heart at the board to-day. He further stated that feet of a superior being in the form of the Stinnes contract for Wabana ore the feminine pursued, but in this new had not been cancelled and he anticiproduction Mr. O'Brien. as Melville pated that shipments would resume Marley, a despondent and discouraged | again on May 1, the regular date, as the company had had no word to the contrary from Germany, and expected none.

Wilday, whom adverse fortune has authoritatively stated that the report thrown mercilessly upon the world. will not compare with that of the pre-Such a girl is seldom known as the vious year, when earnings showed heroine to a popular story, but Lois, some balance applicable to the second unfortunate as she is, meets Marlay) preferred. It is understood that the who is even in worse circumstances, 1922 earnings will show the first preand together they find their inspira- ferred covered. Last year very lit tion and ultimate happiness in each tle business was done until the "Is Life Worth Living?" is said to much brighter as three blast furnaces Aside from Mr. O'Brien and Miss pany is finding a ready market for all

T. A. Juveniles en Tete.

400 CHILDREN IN ATTENDANCE.

club rooms yesterday; upwards of 470 up outside the hall and marched over am particularly fond of doing things no hesitation in telling you that the the courtesy of Messrs. O'Neil and it was with the intention of earn-caused by the far more rotten admin-Coady, a cinema exhibition was given, ing the unique distinction of being istration of the past few years." He consisting of comedies, etc., which was greatly enjoyed by the boys. After cheers had been called for the proprietors of the theatre the lads returned to the club rooms, where a bountiful supply of good things, prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary and the lady friends of the Society was waiting for them. Following the spread addresses were made by Chairman J. O'-Toole and Vice-President J. J. Mureach boy left the building he was given was the formula which had on the oca bag containing fruit and candy. Lattended a dance in the theatre portion of the hall, Bennett's Orchestra furnishing the music.

Boat Club Dance.

CASINO THEATRE TO-NIGHT.

The C.C.C. Boat Club Dance takes dance were awarded to Mr. Max Fea- place in the Casino Theatre to-night. ver and Miss May Templeman. Mr. The members of the Boat Club have S. Fraser managed the affair and Mrs. specially decorated the theatre for the J. H. Jardine presided at the piano. occasion. Nothing will be left undone to The staff of Spencer and Feild Col- make the dancers feel at home and to lege were invited and many of them spend an evening of exceptional enjoy- said the Prime Minister. The unexwere present including Mr. and Mrs. ment. To this end the Committee in pectedness of it astounded me. I onable," he replied. "There has been for sale let alone its inhabitants, and W. Canning, Capt. E. Nash of the Girl charge have had the floor thoroughly gazed at him like a dying fish, my so many, you know." Guides and Misses House and Annand. waxed and varnished, while the light- eyes and mouth wide open, and my Supper was daintily served and the ing arrangements will be of the very hair standing on end. I must have reaffair terminated shortly after 10.30. best. The formal presentation of the mained in this attitude for some con-The chaperones were Mrs. G. R. Wil- prizes won at the Dominion Sports siderable time, for the great man re- take. One which completely overheld in November last, will be made marked pleasantly: "Why do you keep shadows all the others." Two handsome silver cups will gramme will be the elimination and always disappear in the winter time." that my alliance with Mr. Coaker was be given the lucky winners in the moonlight dances. For the former Elimination Dance, at the Cadet two beautiful silver cups will be off- and thought deeply for a few seconds. "A fon. I asked. "Do you attribute our ion."

"Who buys hath need of a hundred C.C.C. Hall, Duckworth Street, thrown out of the office. eyes." In other words look and enquire before investing. If you do this you will select the Remington Type-writer. A Milne Fraser, W. J. Edgar, Agent, Royal Bank Chambers.

Agent, Royal Bank Chambers.

Jan 31, feb 3

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

I rose to go; and as I moved toward the door, I cast a lingering glance at the box of cigars, which was still more than half full.

MCNEIL, Hon. Secretary.

Jan 31, feb 3

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

Agent, Royal Bank Chambers.

Jan 31, feb 3

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

I rose to go; and as I moved toward the door, I cast a lingering glance at the box of cigars, which was still more than half full.

Thursday evening, Feb. 1st, at 8 this interview to a close."

At Home" to her friends, at her the box of cigars, which was still more than half full.

Thursday and Friday afternoon, from 3.30 to 5.30.—jan 30, 2i

The Prime Minster, however, took this interview to a close."

I rose to go; and as I moved toward the door, I cast a lingering glance at the box of cigars, which was still more than half full.

Thursday evening, Feb. 1st, at 8 this interview to a close."

I rose to go; and as I moved toward the door, I cast a lingering glance at the box of cigars, with a few well chopped nuts. Top with a few well chopped nuts. Top with a few will be this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Brime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bring this interview to a close."

The Prime Minster was quick to bri

THIS IS A NEW STORY OF THE ROSARY—FIRST TIME IN ST JOHN'S.

British Empire's steel fiscal year ended December 31st last and it is fall, but present outlook is reported rail mills are running, while the com-

Nothing in Particular

PRIME MINISTER GIVES A CANDID INTERVIEW.

with a Prime Minister on matters while I was thinking out my next visit of M. Albert Sarrant, Minister management that led my steps a few three more of the priceless cigars. self imposed task, it was not without ing. some trepidation that I faced the great | "What would you consider your great I wanted. He was much nicer about was no hesitation.

casion of many former interviews warned me that, as they say in the that though your bed was thorny the Classics, the Prime Minister was go- roses were also there." ing to throw me a line of bull, which realized. However, I was determined I have been neglecting you." not to give up without an effort, and half heartedly put the question, "What the dreamy expression was absent most unbounded and is only excelled do you think of the present economic condition of the country?" "The country is in a rotten state," you took office," I asked. to-night. Two features of the pro- your mouth open? You know the flies

This time I fully expected to be well satisfied with what I have told perienced by the fishing fleet in the and puffed away for several minutes, en during the interview. Once more speak. At last, having chewed three once more the readers of this column of the Coronas to pulp, he said: "Your must sing their paean of praise to question is not one which I would like him who writes

Note—This is a new adaptation from the original st inspired by the theme of the well known play by Edward E. Rose.

- EACH REEL A PEARL

Here's Another Big Picture for You--Love--Pathos--Thrills--at the NICKEL Thurs., Fri., Sat.

When one interviews members of to answer without due deliberation. the Government, one seldom expects It gives prominence to an aspect which St. Pierre Harbor to hear a candid opinion given on any I have completely overlooked, for in matter of public interest, and it is seeking a cause for the existent econindeed refreshing when a Prime Min- omic depression, I have never thought ister, of all people, comes out of his of placing the blame upon myself and shell and tells the truth, the whole my colleagues. Now, however, I am truth and nothing but the truth, beginning to see things in their true knowing that his statements are to light. Yes, you are beginning to make be published in the daily press. I me see things as they are, and I have the first to obtain a candid interview paused, completely out of breath, and days ago toward the office of the I was now beginning to enjoy my

it than I thought he would be, and in- "My greatest mistake," he replied formed me that he would be only too | "was that I ever believed that the pospleased to give me the benefit of any ition of Prime Minister was a bed of information he possessed. As this roses, or, should I say, thornless

"But that." I said "is an admission

"Of course, it is not all thorus," realready well informed, I began to fear position demanded it. Then, too, there branch of the French family. that my ambition would remain un- are these eigars, and that reminds me.

He passed me the box. This time from his eyes, and I took only three. by his great pride as a Frenchman, as The reply was abrupt to the point. has been your greatest mistake since told the inhabitants at his public re-

"Now, my dear fellow, do he reas-

"O course, Sir Richard, I cm well there must be one outstanding mis-"Well, if you insist, I should say my greatest error." "And what," I began another quest-the musical end of the programme. financial distress to the mismanagement of your administration. He interrupted me. "Come, come," he ment of your administration. you. I must really ask you to bring port.

to me with a dreamy expression in he thrust the box into my hands Fillhis eyes. Taking advantage of this ed with delight, likewise my pockets dreamy expression, I pocketed a doz- with cigars, I hurried to the office en of the cigars. I lit one of them and quickly transcribed my notes, takwaiting for the Prime Minister to I had made a wonderful "schop," and > to be Improved. FRENCH MINISTER OF COLONIES

WILL RECOMMEND SUCH ON RETURN TO FRANCE. NORTH SYDNEY, Jan. 19-Exthe French islands off the coast of Newfoundland, may result from the concerning public affairs under his question, succeeded in masticating of Colonies of France, who returned here to-night after a very delightful Leader of the Government. Despite self. The position of confessor to the M. Sarrant, speaking to the Canadian the ambition which urged me on to my Prime Minister was indeed entertain- Press to-night of his first visit to this man in his privacy and told on what est mstake," I asked? This time there was a most delightful one and the in-that M. Sarrant referred to the genwhich was extended to him at first because he is the first Minister of would comprise a mass of infor- plied the great man. "I have had Colonies of France that has undermation on all those things about some very enjoyable holidays, but even taken to cross the Atlantic to come which I and my reading public were it I did not live in luxury, at least, my in touch with the far separated

M. Sarrant's gratitude for the magnificent welcome given him by the hospitable people of St. Pierre is al-"Would you mind telling me what a Minister of the Government for the ception that no place where the French flag has ever been planted is that France would rather die in mistributed to the help of the Mother Country during trying times.

Discussing the proposed improvements of the harbor at St. Pierre, M. Sarrant said he had gone thoroughly into the question and that he intends to prop ose to his Government vements to overcome said, "I think you ought to feel very the difficulties that are now ex-

MILDRED

by Bernard McConville.

as the foolish as the coward sister.

A BIG DROP IN PRICES

CANNED

of finest qualities

HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLE $1.00 per tin. 6 lb. tins CHOICE APPLES 75c. per tin. MARMALADE $3.00 per tin. MARMALADE $1.75 per tin. 2 lb. tins ASSORTED JAMS. 90c. per tin. 2 lb. tins RED RASPBERRIES

40c. per tin. BROOK'S BABY BARLEY 30c. and 18c. per tin. BROOK'S PATENT GROATS. 30c. per tin

- ALSO -HEINZ SWEET GHERKINS (midgets) 50c. per botttle.

ELLIS & CO'Y

203 WATER STREET.

Stuffed apricot salad is delightful for salad. Arrange two apricot halves on lettuce: fill cavities with cream

BILLY'S UNCLE

