

At the last cabinet council held by the Emperor, it is said that the present extravagant high price of bread formed one of the principal subjects of consideration. Napoleon has always been of opinion, with the wise old Roman tribune, that if the stomach be kept full, the other members of the body corporate will give no trouble. The high price to which the four-pound loaf has attained—twenty-one shillings—coupled with the general falling off in all kinds of employment, consequently great distress has been increased by some very indications of popular discontent which have recently manifested themselves. Along the public walks in the Champs Elysees and on the Boulevards, from the Madeleine to the Place de la Bastille, the iron chairs and benches which stood there for the accommodation of the public were on Thursday night all twisted and broken, so as to render them unfit for further service. To accomplish this without attracting the attention of the police a great number of persons must have been employed, and it is this fact which gives to the outrage so serious a character. The newspapers, for obvious reasons, refrained from commenting on it, but in the cafes and public places one hears considerable uneasiness expressed at the occurrence, as it is assumed to indicate a very discontented feeling among the working classes. It is said that they have resorted to this manner of giving expression to their dissatisfaction, because it interferes with the enjoyments of those who are apparently better off than themselves. I have heard it rumored that on the same night placards were found posted up Faubourg St. Antoine with the words "Du pain bon marche ou la mort!" (Cheap bread or death!) printed in large characters upon them. Of this there is not a word in the newspapers, and I give it to you merely as a report. That the condition of the working classes is such as to inspire great anxiety to the government, is, however, not to be contested, and unless steps are taken to reduce the price of bread and find employment for those who have been thrown out of work by the existing stagnation, the consequences may be serious. The class who find steady occupation are those employed by the military contractors. The other day M. Alexis Gadillot gave to nearly four thousand of his work people a holiday, to enable them to visit the exhibition, and paid all the expenses of the treat, including a grand dinner. The fact has given rise to a great deal of grumbling and dissatisfaction among the employed, who say that it is to the activity being displayed in these military furnishing establishments they owe their own state of idleness and suffering. There is a good deal of truth in this. Were it not for the uncertainty in which the country is kept by the unsettled condition of its foreign relations, there would be but little ground for complaint in this regard.

Guelph Markets.
 MERCURY OFFICE, GUELPH,
 November 13, 1867.

The market for the week has been very slack, deliveries of all kinds of grain having been lighter than usual. Of Fall Wheat there is scarcely any offering, and the price is steady at our quotations. Spring Wheat is the principal grain brought to market, and even of that the receipts are comparatively light. The price has slightly advanced today, but it is scarcely probable that the advanced rate will long be paid, as there is no increased demand in other markets to warrant the rise here. It is a result of the same cause to which we attributed a slight increase of price last week, namely, to local requirements. Owners of mills who want to keep their running pay a little more than those who are buying for shipment; but beyond this there is no reason why wheat should sell higher today than it did a week ago, for the Montreal, Toronto, New York and Chicago Markets are dull and drooping. Indeed, some of the buyers are not very eager to purchase at $1.40. Of barley there is but little offering, and the price has gone up two cents a bushel. Peas coming in slowly, with no advance in prices. Of oats there is scarcely any offered, and there has been no change in price for two weeks. Pork is offering freely, and finds good demand at from $4.50 to $5. Poultry are much looked for, and it would be well for those who bring them in to know that the buyers want them killed by bleeding, and not opened, nor the heads cut off.

INDIA & CHINA TEA CO'Y.
 Home Depot at London and Liverpool.
 Canada Depot, 23 Hospital Street, Montreal.

THE India and China Tea Company beg to call the attention of the Canadian community to their directly imported Teas, which for purity and excellence will be found unequalled.
 The Company have made arrangements whereby they secure the entire produce of some of the best plantations in Assam and on the slopes of the Himalayas, and, by a judicious blending of these magnificent Teas with the best varieties of China produce, they are enabled to offer to the public Tea of quality and flavour hitherto unknown to the general consumer. These Teas are in high favour in England and France, and a single trial will prove their superiority.
 The Company supply two qualities only, either Black, Green or Mixed. Their Black Tea will be found to possess great brilliancy and flavour, combined with colour and strength, and to be entirely different to the flat and rapid article usually sold as Black Tea, while their Green Teas are altogether free from the deleterious mineral powder so commonly used for coloring the leaf.
PRICES: Rich, full-flavoured Tea, for family use a real genuine and fine article 70 cents per lb. Finest quality procurable, one dollar per lb.
 The above can be had either Black, Green or Mixed.
 We had in packets of Quarter Pound Half Pound, One Pound, and upwards, or in tin canisters of 5 lbs. and upwards. From the Company's Agents in all the chief towns of Canada.—All the packages are lined with tin foil paper, and the Tea will consequently retain its flavour any length of time.
 ONSAVE.—All packages have the Company's trade-mark, without which none are genuine.
