

NEURALGIA, or Tricoolor, is one of the most painful affections to which the human family is subject. It more commonly occurs in the nerves of the face, though it is met with in different parts of the head, in the breast, hip-joint, and in other parts of the body and limbs. Its attack is usually sudden and the paroxysm of pain varies in its duration. The pain is agonising, excruciating, and shooting along the nerves like a shock of electricity, frequently feeling as if red hot wire were thrust into the parts, and after the pain passes away, a numbness remains for awhile. At these times, instead of attacking suddenly, it comes with a slight heat, or sense of itching or numbness, which augments in severity more or less rapidly. The pain increases from time to time until it becomes almost insupportable. Dr. J. P. Hall's remedy is a positive remedy. Sold by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph, and druggists and country merchants every where.

DYSPEPSIA.
There is no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the

PERUVIAN SYRUP.
(a protected solution of the Protozoid of Iron), as Dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been cured by this medicine, as ample testimony of some of our first citizens proves.

From the venerable Archdeacon Scott, D. D.
Dunham, O. E.—I am an inveterate dyspeptic of more than 25 years standing. I have been wonderfully benefited in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself or the reality. Persons who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me.

Another clergyman writes as follows:—My voyage to Europe has been indefinitely postponed. I have discovered the "Fountain of Health" on this side of the Atlantic. Three bottles of Peruvian Syrup have rescued me from the fangs of the band Dyspepsia.

A pamphlet of 32 pages containing a history of this remarkable remedy, with a treatise on "Iron as a medicine," will be sent free to any address. The genuine has "Peruvian Syrup" blown in the glass.
