They looked at each other. Hobart slipped his pike behind his back.

"I hae no weapon," he said slyly.

"Let me ha'e my fling this nicht," Dow entreated, "and I promise to be sober for a twelvemonth."

"Oh, Rob, Rob!" the minister said bitterly, "are you the man I prayed with a few hours ago?"

The seythe fell from Rob's hands.
"Down wi' your pikes," he roared to his companions, "or I'll brain you wi' them."

Then the minister who was shaking with excitement though he did not know II, stretched forth his arm for silence, and it

Then the minister who was shaking with excitement though he did not known, tstetched forth his arm for stlence, and it came as suddenly as to frighten the people in the neighboring streets.
"If he prays we'er done for," cried young Yuill, but even in that hour many of the people unbonneted.
"Oh, Thou who art the Lord of hosts," Gavin prayed, "we are in Thy hands this night. These are Thy people, and they have sined, but Thou art a merdful God, and they were sore tried, and knew not what they did. To The, our God, we turn for deliverance, for without Thee we erdroped as an Ament ot it.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Ne'er was known to fail."

Neer was known to fail."

The success of this remedy is wonderful.

Its record is unparalleled. It has cured thousands of cases of female weakness, irregularities, and all diseases peculiar to the sex. It can always be depended on to do exactly what is claimed for it. All the proprietors ask is a trial. That will convince the most skeptical of its wonderful virtues. No one need fear cholers or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1.
