DAIRY MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL.

Following is Abraham Hodgson & Sons' Liverpool dairy produce report for the week ending Jan. 10, 1902:
Cheese—Demand has been general and good, but dealers are reluctant to follow any advance in prices, and so far there is no enhancement in values, although there is some expectation of better markets. More attention has been given to under-priced goods—ripe, ready summers and well-kept, good-conditioned Augusts. Today's values we quote as under: Finest colored Canadian, September and October makes, 49s 6d to 50s; finest white Canadian, do, 49s to 50s; finest white States, do, 48s 6d to 49s; early makes (summers), 40s to 44s; Augusts, from 44s to 47s, as to quality.
Butter has been in quiet request, and is lower in value. The prevalence of mild wet weather has had its due effect upon the market, and notwithstanding the lighter supplies generally, buyers have been able to supply their wants at lower prices on the week. Copenhagen, although expected to decline, remains unchanged. We quote as follows: Fancy fresh made Canadian creamery, in 56-lb boxes, 103s to 106s; finest States creamery nominal, 92s to 95s; do, process creamery, 78s to 86s; do, ladle and imitation creamery, 68s to 78s; finest Danish, Kiel casks, 107s to 114s; finest Siberian and Russian scarce, 84s to 96s; Australian and New Zeeland, 92s to 106s per cwt. ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB - THE KING'S PLATE.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 22.-At a meeting of the board, held yesterday, it was decided that the spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club will commence on Thursday, May 22, continuing to Saturday, May 31. The King's plate, to which his majesty has been graciously pleased to donate the sum of 50 guineas, will be run on Thursday, May 22.

PLEASANT GREETINGS. Mr. Hendrie, president of the Ontario Jockey Club, today received the following letter from the Duke of Argyll:

"Kensington, Jan. 6, 1902.-Dear Sir, -I am much touched by the kind remembrance you have shown us by sending a Christmas card of good wishes. May you and the members of the Jockey Club have a happy New Year, and see Canada ever progressing in prosperity in the same measure as she has in this past year. Believe me, yours faithfully (Signed), Argyll." It will be remembered that the Marquis of Lorne (now Duke of Argyll) took a deep personal interest in the Ontario Jockey Club matters when he resided in Canada.

Granose and Granola were introduced and tested. There was an unprecedented unanimity of opinion among the healers of the sick, and these foods were indorsed and freely prescribed by the leading physicians of the continent. Granose and Granola are the result of years and study and experiment by one of the most talented physicians in America, and RANSOM NORTON are foods so successfully used in the treatment of patients of the Battle Creek Sanitarium, the largest institution of its kind on the continent. Doctors have ever been averse to adopting successful treatment of other memers of the profession, and they simply follow this well-understood precedent when they prescribed these foods. Dr. C. A. Cline, of London, Ont., is one among the many prominent Canadian physicians who prescribe these foods. He recommends them as follows:

"The Battle Creek Sanitarium Health Food Company, London, Ont.: Gentlemen-It affords me much satisfaction to testify to the very great value of your food products in sicknest and health. They commend themselves as ideal foods not only to those who suffer from indigestion and conthat are nutritious, palatable and wholesome, C, A CLINE, M,D."

WERE MARRIED THIS AFTERNOON

Nuptials of Miss Jessie McNeil and Mr John Wells, of Toledo.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Geo. McNeil, Hyman street, the principals being his daughter, Jessie, and Mr John Page Wells, of Toledo, Ohio.

Both bride and groom are known in the city. Miss McNeil was formerly secretary to City Clerk Kingston and the groom conducts a tailoring business in Toledo.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. MacGillivray. Miss Erie Wells, of Port Huron, was bridesmaid and Mr. Charles Ellis, of this city, assisted the groom. Little Mamie Mc-Neil, sister of the bride, made a dainty flower girl.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk organdie and Miss Wells was attired in white organdie over pink liberty silk. Subsequent to the ceremony the guests sat down to a dainty luncheon in the attractively decorated dining-room. Among the many presents was a silver table service from the city hall officials, testifying to the esteem in which Miss McNeil is held by her former fellowemployes. A dainty silver tea service

ROAD NOT FOR SALE

Denial of the Report Made By Mr. Henry Everett.

Head of the Syndicate Says London Company Is Not Affected.

Has Not Been Approached By Local Capitalists Regarding Its Purchase—A Labor Opinion.

Mr. Everett, of the Everett-Moore syndicate, is in the city today, attending the annual meeting of the London Street Railway Company. Mr. Wasson, of the syndicate, is also here. They and the directors of the local company were entertained at luncheon by Manager Carr at the London Club, where Mr. Everett was seen by an Advertiser reporter, and asked some questions about the affairs of the syndicate, all of which he answered quite cheerfully.

"Is the London street railway for sale?" he was asked. "No," he replied; "we have no railway for sale now, any more than we had before, that is, of course, if we could get the proper price for it." "Then was that report from Cleveand not true?"

"I have not the slightest idea. All kinds of reports have been in circulation in the last week or so. For instance, it was said that one of my partners was going to make a trip to Europe, which he had not the slightest intention of doing."

"Was that Cleveland report to the effect that London capitalists would buy the road not true?"

"We have not been approached by any London men regarding the purchase of the road, but if we did sell it we would rather sell it to London men than to any others."

"Do the present financial difficulties of the Everett-Moore syndicate affect the London company seriously?"

"Absolutely in no manner whatever, directly or indirectly. Our creditors have kindly given us an extension of eighteen months, and the situation in Cleveland does not affect the Canadian

Mr. Everett went on to say that for some time past bond brokers from New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, and many other cities had gathered in Cleveland with the idea that they could buy up the syndicate's property cheaply, seeing that for the time being they were in financial difficulties. "They have learned, however," said Mr. Everett, "that there are no bargain sales in the Everett-Moore pro- CAMPBELL
