A $400 FIRE

Wortman & Ward's Factory Damaged to That Extent.

What may have proven a very serious fire started shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the works of the Wortman & Ward Company, corner of York and William streets.

The fire originated in the upper floor of a two-story frame building adjoining the brick foundry, and with the aid of the strong wind blowing at the time, it soon had full sway on both floors, and particularly the second. The roof was so badly burned that it will have to be replaced, while the second story was partially cleaned out. The upper story was used as a cooper shop, and the ground floor as a blacksmith shop.

The prompt arrival of the firemen saved the building from total destruction, and also prevented the flames from spreading to the foundry.

The loss will be in the neighborhood of $400.

A LITTLE EARLY. Christmas is yet six months' distant, but the local W. C. T. U. is already taking steps towards making many persons happy on that occasion.

When navigation closes the rates on freight to the Rainy River district are very heavy, and in order to avoid the payment of them the union will as soon as possible send a box to the district containing clothing and supplies for the poorest settlers. This decision was reached at a meeting of the union yesterday afternoon.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING. W. C. T. U. workers were held in Somerset Hall yesterday afternoon, it being "box-packing" day, when a box was packed to be sent to the settlers of the Rainy River district. An abundance of warm clothing was supplied by the members and their friends, and letters were read from Mrs. Welch, who has charge of the work there, Miss Sproule and Mr. Leckie, missionaries in Algoma and Muskoka respectively, showing the great need of missionary work in New Ontario.

HUMANITY TO HORSES. What should satisfy the doubts of those who have heard that there are horses in this city which are not being treated right this summer is the result of a little investigation. Inspector Saw, that was conducted yesterday. He visited chiefly the gravel pits and looked over the various animals to see if there were any horses with eye-shoulders being worked. Only in one or two cases did he find any necessity to warn the owners, there being some against whom a conviction could be secured for inhuman treatment. The recent case before the police magistrate, in the decision of Mr. Justice Joyce, who holds that there is no copyright in news, but only in the particular language in which it is clothed.

The herds and dairies, as heretofore, are classified A, B and C, according to merit; the milk first, second and third class, according to quality.

works in the south end of the city. The complaints against them, he said, were substantiated, the place being a menace to public health. Mr. McMechan asked for four weeks in which to do away with the old building, a new one being in the course of construction. The matter was laid over.

The medical health officer reported that the Canadian Packing Company at the Junction were doing what they could to stop the nuisance previously complained of. No further action was taken, as no recent complaints had been received.

Dr. Hutchinson told the board that there was a danger in leaving around loose old bones and rags, and he was given power to take action to abate the trouble. He reported an uncovered sewer on Grosvenor street and a drain from Mount Hope, which the board will ask the city engineer to attend to.

ST. MARYS.

St. Marys, July 28.—Two freight wrecks took place on the G. T. R. here, within a few hours of each other. Shortly after 1 o'clock on Monday a freight train going west, with a number of loaded cars bound for the Pacific coast, met with a mishap on the down-grade near the G. T. R. bridge across the Thames River.

It is reported that a loaded freight car broke in two and fell to the tracks, and caused five other cars to leave the track. Some cars were over on each side of the embankment before reaching the big small bridge crossing Water street, which is situated a short distance from the big one. The cars struck the road under the Water street subway, and completely blocked the road from traffic. The cars were badly wrecked and goods spilled all along the track. Under the cover of darkness a lot of goods were taken away by the crowds assembled. The Stratford auxiliary cleared the wreck, and the cars were taken to the masonry of the Water street subway. The wreck took place east of the G. T. R. junction, the entrance to the junction station yards, about 2 o'clock this morning. Several cars were wrecked.

At a meeting of the town council on Monday evening, J. Idington, K.C., of Stratford, addressed the council on behalf of the Stratford Radial Railway, asking the council to pass a bylaw for the company to grant them a franchise of 50 years of the streets of St. Marys, and 20 years of the streets of London, and a committee was appointed to meet the officers of the company to confer as to granting a franchise.

While proceeding home one night last week, George Curry, an employee of the Thames quarry, was assaulted by an unknown assailant.

The Stratford Seniors and Alerts play a lacrosse match tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon, on the Athletic Park. A hotly-contested match is expected, with the odds in favor of the Stratford team.

The Horseshoe Quarry Company has received the contract from St. Marys Town Council to supply them with crushed stone, which the company agree to deliver, spread and roll into form on the streets at $4.50 per cubic yard.

A PREACHER TALKS ABOUT FOOT ELM

Says It's the Best Thing for Scalded or Sweating Feet.

"Would be an easy thing to preach a long sermon on the merits of Foot Elm."

What Rev. P. S. Owens, Aylton, Ont., says about it, however, is short and to the point.

"I have used 'Foot Elm' and certify that it is a sure cure for scalded or sweating feet."

We would like to add that not only does Foot Elm cure scalded or sweating feet, but it cures painful, sore, chapped, blistered, itching feet. Cools hot, burning feet and gives such a sense of comfort with the feet that you can "walk and not be weary." Price, 25 cents a box of 15 powders, at drug-gists, or by mail, A.
