The smiler wa not wild, and apparently had enoug to get away with the game under or dinary circumstances, but Washingto had a habit of hitting anything an everything. Mullin went in and fin ished, holding the visitors without trouble. Tannehill was Cantillon's of fering. The Tigers hit him hard an often, and with errors helping in on round, were never troubled.

Tannehill was a little wild in th drst round and Herman Schaefe came through with a clean hit tha gave the champions a lead of two run The Senators got to Donovan in th next round, when he walked a ma and Street and Tannehill doubled and singled respectively. In the third errors and Downs' two-base smash netted four runs for the home hopes, and from then on they were never seriously in danger. They did get to Bill in the sixth for four hits and three runs, but he retired in favor of Mullin, and the game was saved.

Except for the hitting the game was not a pretty struggle. Bush pulled off a few more of his star fielding plays. Schmidt caught well and the rest of the team played good defensive ball, but had very few hard chances.

McIntyre led off in the first inning with a clean single to centre, and GIANIS WIN AND Bush sacrificed. Crawford was walked. A double steal was tried, but Matty was nailed at third. Cobb was walked and Rossman filled the bases when McBride fumbled his grounder Schaefer scored Cobo and Crawford with a sharp drive to centre. This gave the champs a two-run lead to work on, but the Senators came back in their half of the third and tied
