Seventh Annual Meeting of W H. M. Society of Presbyterian Church Opens.

PLEASANT EVENING

Registration of the Delegates Took Place This Morning - Reports Were Presented.

The seventh annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church opened very auspiciously yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. All through the morning and afternoon delegates were arriving by every train, some from the immediate vicinity of the city, some from as fareast as Quebec and as far west as Vancouver, and by the evening, when a reception and supper were held, almost all the delegates had arrived. From 6 o'clock until 8:30 a supper provided by the Presbyterian ladies of London was served to the ladies and their hostesses, some 350 ladies participating. After the supper there was a reception in St. Andrew's hall, where the delegates had an opportunity meeting one another and their different hostesses. There a brief and interesting programme was provided. Solos by Miss Mina Taylor and Mr. Frank Webster were splendidly rendered, and St. Andrew's orchestra provided delightful
