Four Killed By Explosion

Perth, Ont., July 23.—Four men were killed this afternoon in the railroad construction camp of Wheaton & Co., of the contractors on the new Canadian Pacific line which crosses from Glen Bay to Belleville.

The men were engaged in blasting and had poured about half a can of powder into one hole, which they proceeded to pack. Without warning the powder exploded, killing the four men instantly and throwing another who was standing by about thirty feet.

Two of the killed were foreigners, the other two being Patrick Ryan, of Perth, and J. Robertson, of Kingston.

The whole gang of men employed by Wheaton & Co. had a lucky escape in the accident, as there were cans of powder standing close by, which were upset by the explosion, but not ignited.

BECKER GOT SHARE OF PROFITS SAYS WIFE OF DEAD GAMBLER

Mrs. Rosenthal Tells Grand Jury New York Police Official Took Twenty Per Cent. of All Husband's Gains—Net Closing About "Bald" Jack Rose.

New York, July 23.—The widow of Herman Rosenthal told the grand jury today that every word in her husband's affidavit against Lieut. Becker was true. Hysterical and haunted by the fear that she herself would be murdered, Mrs. Rosenthal in intervals of weeping described the intimate relations between the gambler and the lieutenant of police.

She said that Becker received 20 per cent. of the profits of Herman Rosenthal's gambling house until Jack Rose, Becker's collector, became too greedy and insisted on a rake-off himself. Then, said Mrs. Rosenthal, her husband was forced to get rid of Becker, although he never believed that Becker would interfere with the business.

And then she told about the raid. She said that Becker, an old friend of her and her husband's, came to the gambling house, apologetically. He was sorry, he said, clear down to the ground, but Waldo had ordered him to go. Becker knew it was hard on Herman, the widow went on, but he wanted to do the right thing, and she told Mrs. Rosenthal that Herman could forget the $1,500, and that the mortgage would be cancelled.

Gunman's Story.
A few hours after Mrs. Rosenthal left the grand jury room, Harry Vallon, who gave himself up early this morning, was under the fire of District Attorney Whitman's questions. Ready with an alibi, like all of the other figures in the murder case, Vallon insisted that he had had no hand in the killing and that he did not know the single man who fired a shot. But he did admit that he had been around with Jack Rose that night on Lieut. Becker's business, and that with Sam Schepps, he had accompanied Jack

Rose to the house of Dora Gilbert, Rosenthal's divorced wife. In this house, it appears, many people had gathered for a pleasant evening. Vallon saw at least a dozen having drinks at somebody's expense. He himself got drunk and left Rose and Schepps at Bridge Street. Some time after 1 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Puddled and dazed, he stumbled into the subway and went to call on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Signal, at 228 East Fourteenth street.

The story told by the mild-mannered, gentle-spoken gambler, whose appearance is very different from that of the square-jawed, heavy-shouldered run men with whom he was associated, will lead, the district attorney believes, to a breakdown on the part of other men under arrest. Jack Rose, who hired the gray cat, has been advised for his own good to walk the line of truth. And if Rose tells what he knows the district attorney thinks that the evidence will lead to the poet Rosenthal, and the job had to be done. Becker knew it was hard on Herman, the widow went on, but he wanted to do the right thing, and she told Mrs. Rosenthal that Herman could forget the $1,500, and that the mortgage would be cancelled.

Witness Nervous.
The appearance of Mrs. Lillian Rosenthal before the grand jury was the most interesting and significant feature of the day. She arrived at the criminal courts building in a taxicab shortly before noon, accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Newman. Mrs. Rosenthal was in deep mourning, and her face was heavy with weeping and nervous tremors. It is known that she made a strong impression on the grand jury and that she gave some interesting leads. She supplied the names of gamblers to the district attorney—names that Rosenthal was about to reveal when he was killed.

It was announced tonight that Commissioner Waldo will be asked to appear before the grand jury and that subpoenas will be issued for Inspector Cornelius J. Hayes, commander of the third inspection district, the district in which Rosenthal's gambling house is located, for Inspector Lahey and for Captain Wm. F. Day, of the West Forty-seventh street station. Just before his death Rosenthal was saying that Hayes and Day arrested on the ground that they were malicious and oppressive in stationing uniformed policemen constantly in his house at 104 West Forty-fifth street.

The uniformed men were planted in the Rosenthal house immediately after the Becker raid, and were kept there until Rosenthal was murdered. As for Harry Vallon, the other interesting figure of the day, six hours of questioning brought little more from him than an admission that he had been in the Libbey-Shapiro car with Jack Rose and Sam Schepps.

It is known that Vallon's contradictory statements made to District Attorney Whitman and Deputy Commissioner Dougherty have led the officials to believe that the murder mystery will rapidly be cleared up. Vallon was trapped into certain admissions that still further implicate "Bald" Jack Rose, so much so, indeed, that it can be stated positively that Rose has been advised by his best friends to go to Whitman and confess. Dougherty expects Rose to give up, and believes that when Rose tells the true story the facts will point squarely to the real men back of the murder.

Vallon's admission that he went to Bridge Street's poker-room with Rose was also considered important. Vallon says that he was too drunk to remember just when he went to Bridge Street, and that he doesn't remember seeing anybody he knew there except Schepps and Rose. He doesn't remember when he left Bridge Street and stumbled into the subway to go to Harry Signal's house. He told Whitman it was 1:45 a.m., when he got to the Signal house, but he told Dougherty it was about 6 a.m.

FEAR BENNETT HAS CROSSED THE RIVER

Seen at Sarnia Reserve, but He Has Eluded All His Pursuers.

HE IS NOW UNARMED

Brantford Authorities Agree to Guarantee the Expenses of the Chase.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, July 24.—The officers have not succeeded in locating Bennett, the Indian murderer, who was seen at the Sarnia reserve on Monday night. There is not much doubt in the minds of the local authorities but what the man is the missing fugitive, as the description fitted him perfectly.

It is feared, though, that he has succeeded in crossing St. Clair River, and made good his escape. The residents at the reservation have promised to inform the police if he is seen again, but too much credence cannot be given their statements in cases of this kind, where one of their own nation has been captured had the Indian constable living at the reserve known that he was there. The constable knew nothing about it, however, until Detective Action arrived on the scene.

It is not believed that Bennett is armed, from the accounts given by those who had seen him. Both the American immigration and police department are conducting a thorough search along the border to ascertain whether he has crossed into the United States.

GUARANTEE EXPENSES.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brantford, July 24.—The search for Jack Bennett will go on. Crown Attorney Wilkes has given an official guarantee of the expenses incurred in Bennett's case and the officers were instructed to proceed. They were just about to return, when informed that their disbursements would be paid.

The county authorities have refused to offer a reward for the Indian's capture, largely because the reservation contributes nothing towards the county exchequer, and annually requires a considerable expenditure for the maintenance of law and order.

It was with considerable difficulty that the county was remitted $1,000 expenses incidental to the murder trial of Joe Bennett, brother of Jack Bennett, who is now wanted.

BARR TAKES ISSUE WITH CHURCHES

Noted Physician Says There Are Too Many Children Brought Into the World.

PHYSICAL DEGENERATES

Declares for a Higher Morality Based on Greater Happiness of the Race.

Liverpool, July 23.—Sir James Barr, the president of the British Medical Association, and a noted authority on various diseases, in his annual address to that famous medical body here today, was plain-spoken in his denunciation of the doctrine of physical degenerates, who bring into the world a lot of children.

Physical degenerates, he said, ought not to be allowed to add to the race. He knew that such a view would bring him into conflict with some Christian churches, which preached the doctrine of a high birth rate regardless of consequences, boldly declaring that it is better to be born than to be born to be born. They forgot the saying of Jesus that it were well a certain man had never been born.

Sir James refused to act a part to the made morality of the church. There must, he said, be a higher racial morality, based on utility and the greatest happiness, not the happiness of the individual, but of the race. If everybody considered his moral responsibility to the race there might in a few generations be produced a pure, moral and highly intellectual race.

A LOVELY BABY BOY

This Mother is quite Enthusiastic over a well Known Food.

Mrs. J. W. Pateman, 34 Harriet St., Toronto, in writing about Neave's Food says: "When I first knew one of my friends, her baby Jack was eight months old and dying by inches. She had tried three foods because her Jack could not digest milk. At last, I fetched her a tin of Neave's Food. At the end of a month, Jack was rapidly gaining flesh and was bright and happy. He is a lovely boy now and she declares Neave's Food saved his life. And it did."

Then I recommended it to a friend on Victoria Avenue. She had a baby 6 months old that was not thriving a bit. She put the baby on Neave's Food and at the end of three months, the baby was twice the size.

I have never seen two bigger, stronger boys than mine for their ages and we owe it all to Neave's Food. I have the utmost faith in Neave's Food."

Mothers and prospective mothers may obtain a free tin of Neave's Food and a valuable book "Hints About Baby" by writing Edwin Utley, 14 Front Street East, Toronto, who is the Canadian agent. (Mention this paper.) For sale by all druggists.

Dining-Room Furniture at Big Reductions

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

The Furniture as well as all other sections of this store must submit to price cutting at certain seasons in the year. While certain styles in furniture, period designs, etc., may become more valuable with age in your home, that is not the way we figure them here. While you buy Furniture to keep, we buy Furniture to sell (not to keep), hence each season's stocks must be sold, and in order to keep the odds and ends cleared, many pieces of really good Furniture are sold from time to time at factory prices, perhaps less, in order to make room for the fresh display of new pieces. The factories never stop making, and we are buying all the time. New designs are shown on our furniture floor as soon as they are turned out from the factory. This week we are making a clearance of Dining-room Furniture, in which big savings will be made by those who are ready to buy.

TO FIGHT ON LIVE ISSUES AND WIPE OUT CORRUPTION

Colonel Roosevelt Says His New Party Will Receive Ex-Democrats and Ex-Republicans on Equal Footing—Charges Taft Bosses With Stealing Delegates at Convention.

New York, July 23.—In his first speech since his return from Chicago, Col. Roosevelt set forth his reasons for leading in the formation of a new party. His address was delivered at a meeting of the New York County chairmen.

"No man knows better than I," said Col. Roosevelt, "that enthusiasm and high principles cannot be effective without organization and work. A great responsibility rests upon you men here who are undertaking the organization of a new party which is to be a party of the people, a party of the people. It will fight on live issues and not dead ones. It will embody a protest against the corruption in both the old party machines. It will be a party into which ex-Democrats and ex-Republicans, without regard to their political past, are to come in on an exact equality and have each the

POLICE FORCE OF TORONTO LIKELY TO BE INVESTIGATED

Crown Prosecutor Confers With Attorney-General on the Matter.

Toronto, July 23.—Official silence still characterizes the Attorney-General's department and the city police commission relative to their prospective investigations into the startling developments in the Farmers' Bank inquiry.

Chief Justice Sir Wm. Meredith, Crown Attorney Corley and several witnesses in the bank inquiry were at the Parliament Buildings today in conference with the Attorney-General's department.

The report was general that the statement of the witness, who alleged interference and threats on the part of a detective official, had been followed by similar declarations from other witnesses. There were indications in the detective department of an epidemic of witnesses anxious to "set

JAP EMPEROR WORSE AGAIN, HOPE OF RECOVERY GONE

Magicians Tell the Public That Mikado Will Regain His Health.

Tokio, July 23.—Bulletins this evening removed the hopes that had been awakened by the earlier announcements of the Mikado's temporary improvement.

His majesty spent a restless day. The swelling in the abdomen increased and there were other unfavorable symptoms. The Mikado's temperature was 99.86, and his pulse irregular.

Great numbers of the populace have been consulting magicians who foretell the eventual recovery of the emperor.

GERMAN PRESS SAYS BRITISH RESPONSIBLE FOR BIG NAVY

Not Irritated by Churchill's Speech in Commons—Charge Lloyd George With Starting Trouble With His Mansion House Speech.

Berlin, July 23.—German public opinion is neither disturbed nor irritated over yesterday's naval debate in the House of Commons in London. The press generally seems satisfied with Germany's comparative position under the new order of things, and praises the speech of Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, as frank, without the usual provocative-ness. It criticizes, however, the attempt to throw the responsibility for increased armaments on Germany.

The Vossische Zeitung, in commenting on the subject, points out that the increase in the German fleet was due to the tone of the British statements during the Morocco crisis, which compelled every German to regard an increase in the German fleet as a commandment of self-preservation. The Vossische Zeitung takes up Arthur J. Balfour's phrase, in which he referred to senseless competition in shipbuilding, and asks: "Who is responsible? It was not Germany that invented Dreadnoughts, super-Dreadnoughts, and submarines."

A responsible official corroborated the standpoint of the press and asserted unequivocally that the speech de-
