great deal of interest. The big fellow lis a hard hitter, and when he swings on the half he generally most it fair on the ball he generally meets it fairly and puts it out of the lot. He is a nice fielder and a good man, on bases. In build, he resembles Bill Lane, who was here two years ago.

Marshall is bothered with a sore eye. On the way to London he got some sand in it, and was unable to get it out. The eye was badly inflamed when he got here, and it has given him a great deal of trouble since. A local eye specialist is treating it. However, the injury does not seem to affect his playing at shortstop, and right now he looks due for that position on the team.
