Corset bargains

It is not only their style and

The quality of the imported

By actual count more than comfort which make D. & A.

and La Diva corsets popular.

Compare them with any imported corset will be no better but the price will be $1.00 to $3.00 half of the best dressed women in Canada wear D. & A. or.

La Diva Corsets. There is a model for every figure. Our catalogue sent free on request, will help you choose the best

HHH

DOMINION CORSET CO.,

QUEBEC, P.Q.

corsets of similar model.

Condon Adverliser

ADVERTISER BUILDING, Dundas Street. London, Ont.

SUBSRIPTION RATES. One week by carrier...... One year by carrier...... One year by mail, outside city...

TELEPHONE NUMBERS. 3670 Private Branch Exchange, Connecting All Departments.

NIGHT CALLS: p.m. to 8:30 a.m., and Holidays.

Business Department. Editors.

3673—Job Printing Department. To call night numbers use the word To call night numbers use the "ONLY" after giving the number.

Entered at London Postoffice for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.]

The London Advertiser Printing Co., Limited.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JUNE 14. A MISREPRESENTATION NAILED.

Anyone who will take the trouble to consult Hansard for Feb. 13, 1913, will find that Hon, T. W. Crothers, at the Rodney meeting, quoted Sir Wilfrid Laurier falsely in pretending that he admitted in the House of Commons on that date that the contribution policy had been accepted by the Canadian people at the last election. The London Free Press commits itself to the falsehood by indorsing it editorially. Anything connected with that election campaign of 1911 seems to start the Free Press off again on the old track.

It must falsify, as a cold must run its Verbally, Mr. Crothers quoted Sir Wilfrid exactly enough, except that the Liberal chief said: "I need not recall the fact that my right honorable friend triumphed on that occasion," instead of the stupid "I do not recall that, etc.," as the Free Press reports Mr. Crothers to have misquoted. But the connection and reference to the passage quoted were deliberately falsified by Mr. Crothers. Here is the rest of the passage, taken

"It was his (Mr. Borden's) policy which was adopted by the Canadian people, it was not the policy which I had advocated, but it was the policy which he had later adopted and which was the last policy before the people and which was ap-

But what did Sir Wilfrid here mean by "his (Mr. Borden's) policy"? The unquoted context shows clearly that he did not mean the policy, temporary o permanent, of contribution, as Mr Crothers, if not the Free Press, should know very well. Far from it! Sir Wilfrid had just been showing that Mr Borden had committed himself unreservedly to consultation of the people on the naval question in toto, both naval policy and the general question of contribution to imperial armaments. He had proceeded: "My right honorable friend went before the electors pledged by his vote on the amendmen of the member for Jacques Cartier (Mr Monk, Nationalist), that we should consult the Canadian people not only upon the question of the navy but upon the question of contribution to arma ments. I need not recall the fact tha my right honorable friend triumphed on that occasion. It was his policy ete.," as quoted by Mr. Crothers and misapplied by him.

Can any honest reader doubt that Sir Wilfrid meant by "his (Mr. Borden's) policy" not the contribution, but the promise of consulting the people re garding any contribution; not the policy cooked up since the election, but the policy of consultation on which, in concert with the Nationalists. Mr. Borden fought the election? It is sheer out of the words. It is simply some more of the "gulling" which rejoices sard at hand, but really it requires a

ART SALES.

Prices paid for pictures, carvings, art away that we may be permitted, withis said to be "tight," but a Rembrandt to join in Germany's acclaim: "Hoch is sold at Paris for $200,000 that 200 der Kaiser." years ago was valued at $106.53. The final returns last week in the auction of the Kraemer collection of pictures and furnishings, Paris, came to $1,124,-583. Sometimes the high-priced painting is ancient, sometimes modern.

It is not to be thought that the arfistic merit of a work fixes its market price. Artistic merit is itself most difficult to determine, even relatively The value set upon a picture is largely a matter of fashion or vogue, largely made up by various extraneous circumstances of time and place. If the "Mona Lisa" were recovered now it would probably be more wanted than ever, because of the mystery of its disappearance from the Louvre. Artists past and present have their ups and downs in favor, often without apparent causes. Even early Victorian art seems to be holding up its diminished head again in some quarters, fabulous sums are paid for funny old Chinese and workmen are opposed to the revases, and why should a Romney or a Lawrence fetch today as much as a

Reynolds or a Gainsborough? Living painters have always to condend against the advantages of history, tradition and literary or artistic asso ciation attaching to the works of old masters. A superiority of realism, imaginative force and sympathetic or dramatic sentiment sometimes does not avail the modern in his struggle against the dead. However, it is probable that in the long run real merit wins attention and indeed the living must always some day graduate, by starvation or otherwise, into the ranks the merger policy and follows Aus- Anderson and Brown.

ially or suddenly become canonized, and wrong be righted. Millionaires may contend for possession of once slighted works when the worker is in

HOCH DER KAISER.

On June 15, 1888, William H. became Emperor of Germany; and this week his people are celebrating with enthusiasm the twenty-fifth anniversary of his sovereignty. Judged supericially a person would be inclined to say that the Germans who are a liberty-loving people, would not take kindly to a ruler who is thoroughly saturated with the doctrine of the divine right of kings, and who never hesitates to act on that doctrine. And yet there is no reason to doubt that the loyal expressions of the great mass of his subjects are perfectly sincere And there is reason for it. The Ger mans love freedom; but they also love Hohenzollerns the fatherland has been They like a man who does things; things he does. And they pardon many errors on the part of the man whose life and whose energy is given to his Kaiser; and a most versatile one. He some success. He writes postry paints pictures, composes operas preaches sermons, gives lectures on domestic science to women, instructs sails his vachts, organizes and drills may be quite true that he does none of these things perfectly, but he doe them better than the average man.

A somewhat conceited person is William, with unbounded confidence in see how they can make spirits disaphimself, and a happy facility for getting into the limelight. But there is some excuse. He was trained from infancy in the idea that God and the correctly enough, from Sir Wilfrid's Kaiser are supreme, and that they work together for the glory of Germany. As a self-conscious and self measure of success, he will occasion-For he has been successful to a grea subordinate to Bismarck, the man o emented the empire. But he calmli urned Bismarck out of the ship of tate, and took the helm into his own hands. And his own hands have been there ever since. He has had his min ister but they have been his subordin ates; he has not been their puppet.

He has paid so much attention t is known as the "War Lord." But in reality he knows nothing about war He has never seen a battle. During his twenty-five years Germany has had practically unbroken peace. Excitable people in England have for years beer larmed over the "German peril." Yet the German Emperor kept the peace prices; and if it increases prices, it with England even when the British must increase the cost of living. Empire was more isolated than it is today. Is it not possible that the great German gunmakers have had more to lo with the frightening of timid little Englanders than have the supposed designs of the Kaiser?

At all events for twenty-five years William II. has been the leader as well ed for his own people, and he has used or he is ridiculed not done any harm to ours. Germany mendacity to take any other meaning many's growth. Most of the great magnates, college professors, etc., use England and the United States, have them salted before the spring work bepapers like the Toronto News. Of had their wars; but Germany has gone gan. I'll venture to say that Sir Wilcourse, the Rodney people had no Han- on its way peacefully, despite all the liam Mackenzie often splashed up and simple mind to swallow such an inter- It is the greatest military power to- now look at the catches he gets! Of pretation as Mr. Crothers'. It is prima day, and yet it does no fighting. In course they are full of bones, but they this case, at all events, militarism has chew up easily and swallow fairly well. not been inconsistent with peace. Despite the jingoes of England and Can-Every few days comes news of great ada the "German peril" seems so far work and antiques in general. Money out any disparagement of our loyalty, Merger imperialism is a doctrine expounded in Britain chiefly by lords, landlords and dukes, who object to paying their fair share of taxation.

They have their toadies in this country "Mr. Borden will probably accept the challenge" (of the Senate)-London Nation (May 24).

The Nation will have to revise its prognostication. They don't know Bordenism over there.

"The outlook for home rule is not more roseate as one scans the English by-election returns." - Free Press (London). But that Irish by-election at Derry was shamrockeate.

It is really encouraging to hear of army riots in Eastern France against the three years' service. Apparently the majority of the French peasants vived militarist agitation. What sense is there, then, in the German army increase? France itching for revenge seems to be largely a theatrical idea.

"The sentiment of the people New Zealand is matched by the was preserved intact. sentiment of the great majority of the people of Canada who believe also in 'One Empire, One Flag, One Fleet.' New Zealand recognizes that of herself she might not repel the foreign invader, but that as a mem- season this morning on the Collegiate

But New Zealand has gone back on Bryan and Dennis, and for the Rangers, of the majority. His genius may grad- tralia. Mr. Borden's place is with the Malays and Quebec Nationalists.

> A very striking article has appeared in the May Forum, by Dr. F. B. R. Heliems, a distinguished graduate of Toronto University, a former Welland ooy, and now professor in the University of Colorado, "The Serence Evangel of Science" is a warm ressertion, in these gray days, of optinistic faith in science as the redeemer of the world. The article is couched in that broad Platnoic manner that Professor Hellems partly caught from the lips of Principal Hutton years ago. To an abstract of this thoughtful and prophetic essay. Public Opinion devotes the two front pages of its edition

NO PLACE TO BUILD TUNNELS.

[Youth's Companion.] scotsman who had worked for years on the railroad among the Highlands of Scotland went to the United States in his later years and settled on a section of homestead land on the plains of the far West. Soon after his arrival there was a project for a railway through the district. The Scotsman was applied to as a man of experience in such mat-

"Hoot, mon," he said to the spokes man of the delegation, "ye canna build a railway across this country." 'Why not, Mr. Ferguson.'

'Why not?" repeated Ferguson with an air of effectually settling the whole matter. "Why not? Dinna ye see the country's as flat as a floor, and we hae nae place whatever to run your toonels hrough?

PRETTY CLOSE.

First Stude-"How near were you the right answer to the fifth ques-

Second Stude-"Two seats away."

MANIPULATORS, ANYWAY. [Baltimore American.] 'Those fakirs can't make spirits ap-

"Maybe not, but you ought to

"DIXIE." FAR FROM HOME.

[Atlanta Constitution.] Way up in the Northland, under skies Heard the band a-playin' "Dixie," and they all cried "Hooray!"

eemed to hear the kildees-saw the larks fly o'er the loam. And the heart in me was singin' the song of love and home.

Old times in Georgia-they came back again-Meadows of the Maytime-roses in the O'er the dreary distance far I seemed to roam, 'blood and iron," who had created and I heard in dreamy twilights the songs of love and home,

> Way up in the Northland, but "Dixie" sent a thrill, one said, as it echoed: we're friends and brothers still

> And my heart went back to Georgia as the bee flies to the comb. And all the world was singin' the songs of love and home.

A GOOD ARGUMENT.

[Hamilton Herald.] Back in England from his visit to this country, Sir Robert Perks tells the interviewers that the Canadian tariff does not increase the cost of living, although it does increase wages. increases wages, it must increase the cost of production; and if it increases the cost of production it must increase

CAUTION.

[Le Devoir.] Not to be confused, Mr. Pelletier west, is not Mr. L. P. Pelletier, minis ter of the postoffice.

GOOD OLD ECONOMICAL WAYS.

[Bracebridge Gazette.] A fellow cannot economize in as the ruler of Germany. He has work- good old ways in which our fathers fish that is not fit for food. Why has grown greater, but Britain is no fathers of some of our powerful bless you, in the good old days the weaker. In fact, Britain gains by Ger- preachers, leading financiers, railwa civilized powers of the world, including to go to the "Crik" at Beaverton and get a wagon load of suckers and have down the creek, driving suckers into As if they had been wed a year, money it has expended on armaments. the net held by his big brothers, and THOROUGHLY ORGANIZED.

[Boston Transcript.] "They say that unions raise the price "Quite right! Two of my elerks got married last week, and truck me for more salary.

A HUSKY VOICED BIRD.

[Punch.] Lady-"You told me I need not take ut a license for the dog till the end of the year, and now they've sent me a Fancier-"Them revenue ummons.' people will do hanythink, lady. I sold genelman a parrot larst week, an' e summoned 'im for keeping a dog without a license, just becos the bird appened to 'ave a 'usky voice."

EXPENSIVE PERSIAN HATS.

[Christian Herald.] In the Shah-in-Shah's country, far away across the seas in Southern Persia, the astrachan trade has its origin. Before the little lambskins became valuable in the eyes of the fash. ionable world, all Persians wore hats of real astrachan, but nowadays the genuine skins have become so expensive that only the wealthiest of people can afford to use them. The poor lasses wear either caps or felt, or imitation lambskins, made of cotton.

It is said that a real lambskin kollah, like the genuine Panama, lasts more than a lifetime, and descends from father to son, or is the subject of secial bequest to some valued rela-The finest lambskins were formerly obtained from the unborn lamb, by sacrificing both mother and young, for by this cruel and extravagant method the fine curls of the jet-black beautiful, glossy sheen on the wool

BOYS' PLEASURE CLUB WINS.

The B. P. C. Baseball team of Wat erloo street won its first game of the per of the Empire she possesses a Institute grounds by defeating the fleet which is not equalled by that Rangers by a score of 8 to 7. Batteries of any foreigner."—Free Press Rangers by a score of 8 to 7. Batteries for the B. P. C. were: Fitzpatrick, Montezuma...

When Eve, in Eden, saw the snake, She chased around to get some clothes, Considering the latest styles

We need some snakes now, goodness Our Precise Artist,

Just think of it-a woman killed her husband in the United States and was severely scolded by the judge. Such cruelty demands a recall, indeed.

vife has to work when he's away fish-There's a gravedigger in London

A man can never see how hard his who has dug over 800 graves. Yet he's one of the cheeriest fellows you could Have you ever seen a woman crowned with a flaming aureola of gold," as one writer has? Neither have But we have admired plenty of the plain, red-headed kind. The only thing that makes war possible is the International Society of

They seized his auto car for debt. But he did not complain, Because, as he said to a friend, "I'm on my feet again."

Tuppence, as 'Twere, Born-To Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pence, f Marshville Place, twins, a boy and

Speaking of art perverted, there's the

Why Englishmen Will Never Take to EXPECT TARIFF Baseball.
Voice (in the grandstand)—I soy, old chap, knock a roller. Don't knock it into the wind.*"

*Wind spoken to rhyme with "find." We have yet to hear of any young nan who spends all his time in poolcooms laying any corner-stones.

The box-score should have another olumn with the letters "B. H. P. above it. Meaning, as you have already divined, "bone head play."

This is the month when roses bloom And blushing bride and nervous groom Start forth upon their honeymoon, Long worked he for the price They try to act and to appear But from the tresses o'er her ear,

There falls the tell-tale rice. In Which There Is Hissing and Gulping All Over the Place.

[Smart Set.] "Fool! Cry out once more and wa "The Baron will not see him!" hissed the other. "Ah, you have four future, but I"- she gulped—"what of me?" How could the ladies ever flee if mad dog should run amuck?

Yes, thank you, we enjoyed The Whistling Man, especially because he did not whistle "Row, Row, Row." Hamilton continues to bat about .216

Someone should hang that Goderich row that asks, "Who got the $500" within earshot of Queen's Park, Ton the joy of living league.

One of our fairest acquaintances hose name is Lillian Eleanor is considering an action against Barnum's, or it appears they chose her name for anything to do." the rhinerocos.

Especially was her decision strengthd when her companion suggested that 'Mr. Barnum had the right idea." Some of these North Ontario towns must be wiped off the map before we came to know their names.

Sicilian....

Some salesmen are equal to almost any emergency and do not spare the when occasion requires. But the Blank car is guaranteed for life,' protested a prospective purchaser to a salesman of the sort. know it is," retorted the quick-witted salesman, "but our car is guaranteed for a whole year." It required several moments for the prospective purchaser

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS. Reported at Liverpoo .New York ... Rotterdam Volturno. San Giovanni....New York Naples .New York Verona..... P. di Piedmonte.. New York Palermo Cedric Queenstown ... New York

.Antwerp ...

If you are one of those persons who prefer an extra mild ale, an ale that combines richness, extra fine flavor and sparkling clearness, you should try CARLING'S SPECIAL SELECT ALE, put up in crown stoppered bottles. It is a special brew, and has won renown for its delieacy of flavor. It can be easily digested and assimilated by those who are unable to drink a heavier ale. Especially adapted for home use, it is guaranteed to

RUSTAB

Beauty of contour is the key of the successful "1913" costume.

More than ever before a proper corset is necessary. The great success of the D. & A. and the La

Diva styles has kept the great Dominion

Corset Co's model

factory in Quebec,

with its thousand

skilful corsetières

busy early and late producing the corsets which will bring style, comfort and support to many women in Canada.

please the most fastidious. Costs no more than our other brands. Order from all dealers, cafes and hotels. Demand WITHOUT FIGHT Democratic Leaders Think All Trouble Has Been Satisfactorily Arranged. pound interest allowed.

Leader Says Country Wants Ouick Action on Important Measures.

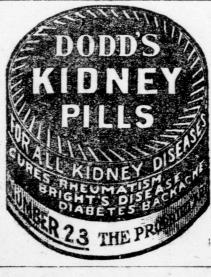

TO PASS HOUSE

Washington, D. C., June 14. - Administration leaders in the Senate were in a jubilant mood today over the prospects for the tariff bill. They unhesitatingly asserted that the party jority for the measure as it comes from the caucus will not be endan-

Admitting that the situation in the self.

Today the Democratic majority rechairman, asserted that he intended ed race. to push the bill as rapidly as possi-

"There is evidence everywhere that country wants quick action on this tariff measure," said Senator Sim-"I have realized it from the beginning, but it has been impossible to move faster and wisely up to this time. Now there is nothing to pre-vent rapid progress and the bill will be pushed. It has been received by the ountry with less apprehension than we had expected. It is a fact that obvious inst fewer protests have been made than to do in 1865? any tariff bill with which I had ever

-use 3-in-One oil on

A deposit of one dollar is sufficient to open a savings account with the Home Bank. There are many hundreds of prosperous savings accounts in the Home Bank that started from an original deposit of one dollar. Full com-

HEAD OFFICE AND TORONTO JAMES MASON, General Manager, 8 BRANCHES IN

BRANCHES AND CONNECTIONS THROUGHOUT CANADA. LONDON OFFICE:
394 RICHMOND STREET; W. J. HILL, MANAGER. ILDERTON, THORNDALE, DELAWARE, KOMOKA, LAWRENCE STATION, MELBOURNE.

CORRESPONDENCE

A Saxon Home Ruler. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Mr McKegney refers to a story yo was ready for harmonious action and instanced, as apocryphal. Perhaps i predicted that a clear Democratic ma- is safer to assume that some of his stories are apocryphal. Even eyewitnesses are not always to be trusted when prejudice is the beam in the eye but a written letter is tangible in i

Senate was anything but satisfactory! How does it prove that the Ulsteriacs when the bill passed the House, the are loyal, to accuse the home rulers of eaders now contend that prolonged disloyalty? There is no pertinence i preliminary consideration of the meas- this procedure. Some people mistake ure has brought about "an ironing out abusing the opponent for argument of the rough places" in the party And what would be the sense of argualignment, and that every development ing the loyalty or the disloyalty of the has been in favor of the administrative Irish Catholics anyway? They never lowed England and Scotland allegiance and since 1800 have not pretended that sumed consideration of sub-committee they did. They were in the main eports, and Senator Simmons, the conquered and plundered and exploit

"Has Parliament a right to put Ul ster under any power? Can you poi to any case in history where such thing has been done? Mr. McKegne might read up the history of Canada or of South Africa or of the United States. The British North America ac placed the Maritime Provinces under the Dominion Parliament, though minority, or perhaps, a majority ther was opposed to this. That is rather an

"About 90 per cent, of the Protestant f Ulster signed the covenant, etc. Well, how did they vote in Derry There was the one election conteste since 1911 straight on the home rul ssue, where both sides had a fighting hance, and the Unionists were whiped, and Ulster gave a majority assent o home rule.

"These (bishops, manufacturers, etc.) are not the men to be carried away with an ephemeral excitement." But we know who were thus carried away in 1868, and the threats and war cries of that period-all so much froth, Glad-1868, and Asquith does not now. They may be ignored.

So Asquith has a "jelly-fish kind of backbone?" Ask Lord Halsbury, who played jelly-fish in 1911. A more important matter was at stake than which hall Churchill should speak in, no such childish matter, and it was The kiss of faithful friendliness, not Mr. Asquith that lay down. It is easy enough to answer gibe with gibe. Who is playing jelly-fish now in regard to imperial preference? Who have fled from the leaky huts and made for cover in practically a free trade tent? They are not the kind of men to help your sewing machine Belfast stop home rule going into ef-SAXON HOME RULER.

Draley-

And so we part in friendship,

With neither pain or bitterness.

And, unbewitched, we plainly The meaning of our comedy;

Yet this we know-and, knowing, smile, At least we loved a little while!

The vows we made, the faith we swore

To love—and love forevermore, byious instance. What did Congress Are quite forgot; we turn and go Certain that it is better so, Yet, though romance cannot beguile, At least we loved a little while,

Because you loved me, I have known A world I could not find alone. And from my love did you not

A glimpse of palaces in Spain? stone didn't arrest the malcontents of What if we missed the Blissful Isle. At least we loved a little while.

Good-bye-upon your brow I

For, though we part from sorrow free. We lived a space in Arcady,

And we can whisper, with a smile, least we loved a little while!"