SPRINGBANK PICNIC

Presbyterian Divines Cast Aside Old Boys' Committee Makes Clerical Solemnity in Gay Frolic.

Strenuous Battle, Won by Rev. McFarlane's Nine.

Nearly every Presbyterian minister in London, and many from the churches near this city, enjoyed their annual piclasted from 10:30 a.m. until the early evening. The ministers threw aside the dignity that goes with the clerical position, and played baseball, bowled, and had a great time in general. About 30 ministers and their families enjoyed the

The ball game was the feature of the day. At the end of nine hard-fought innings the score stood 35 to 37 in favor of the team captained by Rev. Hugh Mac-Farlane. The pastors admit now that the real fighting took place in disputing the umpire, Rev. J. G. Stuart. His decisions caused continuous arguments and altogether will cost in the neighbor-"We would have thrown pop bottles if we had them," one of the players on the losing side declared. Rev. John Hosie fished unsuccessfully all day long and, missed the ball game.

The teams lined up as follows: Rev. H. McFarlane's team—Rev. G. S. McCray, Miss McCrae, Miss Burnett, Rev. W. G. Knox, Rev. W. R. McIntosh, Rev. W. M. Martin, B. Martin, Dr. G. Munro. Rev. A. D. McCrae's team-Mrs. F. C. Harper, Mrs. W. R. McIntosh, Miss A. Nichol, Rev. P. Nichol, Chas. Evans, Rev. F. C. Harper, Mrs. Ingram, F. C. Lyons. Dinner and supper was served on the

MAN SAID MEN ATTACKED

His Explanation of Rough Treatment He Had Evidently Received.

That he had been molested and roughly handled by a couple of men he did not know, in the outskirts of Chelsea Green, was the explanation for the battered state of his facial features, and a number of bruises on his body, given by a man who called on Dr. J. Cameron Wilson for attendance yesterday afternoon. The man did not give his name.

His injuries are not serious. The police stated that no hold-up other similar occurrence had been reported from Chelsea Green yesterday.

Causing Great Suffering and Anxiety - Prompt Relief and Cure by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This is one reason why every nother should know about Dr. Chase's Ointment since it is an unfailing cure for all itching skin diseases. Mrs. F. Clarke, Belmont, Man., writes:—"My baby had eczema on her ear. The sore was very bad, and nothing seemed to do her much good. Hearing of the remarkable cures Dr. Chase's Ointment was making, we sent for some, and after the third application the sore began to heal. I am glad to say that it is quite well now, and we give the credit to Dr. Chase's Ointment. We cannot recommend this preparation too highly." Here is another letter, which tells of the cure of a five-weeks-old baby: Mrs. Wallace Mingon, River John Road, Colchester County, N.S., writes: "My little girl took eczema when she was five weeks old. Though we doc-

PLAYING SYSTEM OF MANY ARCHES

Final Score of 37 to 35 in Dundas Street, From Ridout St. to Fair Grounds, Will Be Brilliantly Illuminated.

Old Boys' decorating committee practically decided last night upon the plans for street decorations, during nic at Springbank yesterday. The outing Old Boys' week. The contract was Regent of Regimental D. O. E. given to the Electrical Decorating and Equipment Company, of Toronto, and plans and specifications of this com-pany will be submitted today for final approval.

The streets will be brilliantly lighted, in a system of arches, along the sides of the roadway from Ridout street to the Fair Grounds, on Dundas, and from the Grand Trunk Station to the Postoffice, on Richmond. The arches will be decorated with flags and pennants. The decorations hood of $1,300, which the committee expects to raise by public subscripl tions.

According to the members of the committee, the streets will be as light as day. Never before has London been as brilliant as it will be for the 1914 reunion. The bright lights will be a feature of the celebration. The Dundas street arches will be terminated at the Fair Grounds by a huge arch, surmounted by a quick-moving lesign resembling a sunburst.

The printing committee decided last night to call for tenders for programs. Orders will be placed for 50,000 stickers and several thousand large bills, for county advertising. Committees meet every night this week, concluding in a general meeting of all the committees and members and citizens interested, on Friday night. More than 25 were present at the meeting last night, and great enthusiasm was displayed.

Men Who Assaulted M. C. R. Conductor Remain Uncaptured.

MOTOR

Patrol While Thugs Make Get-Away.

Two crooks who beat up William Watson, a M.C.R. conductor, on Saturday afternoon, after a fifteen-minute fight, are still at large. who saw the methods of the police in action on the scene, say that the of the First Methodist Church, London police evidently preferred an auto

About 1:30 Saturday afternoon, Watson saw two men in the act of making a get-away with three boxes of fancy biscuits, from a box car on the railroad tracks near Wellington street. He grbbed one of them, and held him for nearly fifteen minutes. until his companion beat him off with a coupling pin, wounding his hands and arms.

In the meantime, a spectator had sent in a police call, and the patrol was rushed to Bathurst street, at Wellington street. The thieves were running down the tracks, toward Waterloo street. When they saw the patrol, they took to the lumber yards along the side of the track.

Those who were on the tracks believe that had the police surrounded the lumber yards, the arrest of the men would have been certain. Instead of this, the patrol was speeded down Bathurst street, all the way to Maitland, touching York street on the way back to the scene of the fight, some minutes later. By this time, the two men had disappeared. Then the lumber yards were searched.
The backs of the two men as they limbed the lumber piles, was the last the police have seen of them. They are, of course, keeping a close watch, as one of the men is expected to return for his hat, supposed to have been dropped near the tracks. He was bareheaded when he escaped.

The descriptions of the men are clear, as Conductor Watson had ample time to observe them. One is described as being about 26, the other about 35 years of age. Both wore brown suits, and were of medium height. The police departments have a full description of the men. Two suspects are said to have been arrested at the Carnival in Queen's Park on Saturday night, but were let go, upon proving alibis.

MIS: Indinate Metvine, parcoas, passage writes:—"I thought it my duty to write and tell you how much your Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart was so bad I could not sleep, eat nor walk about the house. I could not do alibis.

LEAGUE "AT HOME"

Askin Street Entertains That of Wellington Street Church.

The members of the Askin Street Epworth League were "at home" to the Wellington Street League in the schoolroom last evening, when a very interesting program was carried out, consisting of solos by Miss Vivian, Miss Taylor, and Mr. Lawson. Readings by Misses Clarke and Brazier. Miss Mabel Reynolds gave a bright, thoughtful address on "The Romance of the Commonplace as Revealed Wordsworth." One unique feature of the program was the address and presentation by Miss Edith Long and Miss Ethel Johnston to the pastor, Rev. W. H. Harvey. ERNEST SACKVILLE WEST'S DEATH DISCLOSED IN PARIS

PARIS, June 15 .- Ernest Henry Sackville-West, who four years ago brought a suit at London as claimant to the estates of the late Lord Lione Sackville. Sackville-West died here recently, but the fact was only disclosed today. It is reported that he committed suicide. The court in London dismissed the petition.

Ernest Sackville-West was the son of a Spanish dancer, Josefa Duran, who was married to Lord Sackville-West at Madrid. Subsequently Sack-ville-West alleged that the woman had a husband living when she for-med an alliance with him, and the son and three daughters born from their union were never recognized by the courts as having any right to the title and estates.

Wednesday Morning Sales Attract Many

Our efforts have been greatly stimulated by the success of the first two half-holiday morning sales. Last week we made an appeal to morning shoppers for a full day's business in the forenoon through these columns, with a list of special merchandise picked from the different sections of the store, at prices obtainable at no other time, and in most cases the quantities were cleared before the closing hour.

While we are pleased to find that our customers a ppreciate our selection of bargains for them, it is also gratifying for us to find our cash sales greater for the half-day than for the corresponding full day last year, which was the case last week. Wednesday morning sales exceeded the full day's business of a year ago, and our efforts are stimulated for still greater results tomorrow, as the list below, which is the best yet, will demonstrate. Don't miss one itembring the list with you.

NO PHONE ORDERS TAKEN.—As a protection for those who come out Wednesday morning all special sale goods will be sold over the counter only, but in any case it will be wisdom to come at 8:30, as some quantities will not last the forenoon.
