BOXING GOSSIP.

Frankie Fleming, the champion featherweight of Canada, has just returned to Montreal from New York. He left on his return train after the first of the year, and will arrange for his fight to be held in Montreal, and in New York. Fleming says that he never felt better at any time in his career than now.

So successful was last year's season of boxing at Harvard that the students of the university are making much more elaborate plans for the next during the present college year, and a championship tournament similar to that conducted last spring, with the possibility of intercollegiate tournaments during the course of the year, is being planned.

Francie Welsh, hurt his hand in training for the bout with Chick Simler, of Scranton, at Scranton New Year's afternoon, and it has been put back two weeks. Simler is confident he will defeat Welsh, and is very much disappointed at the postponement.

Jack Dillon has several important matches in view. He will either box "Batting" Levinsky in Boston on Jan. 9 or Billy Miske in a return match at the Broadway Sporting Club on that date. Dillon is also slated to box Bob Moha fifteen rounds at Day on New Year's afternoon. Levinsky is to box Bob Moha at Youngs town on Jan. 11.

"Batting" Levinsky, champion of the light heavyweight championship by reason of a recent victory over Jack Dillon in a twelve round bout to a decision in Boston, had been matched to box Billy Miske, the St. Paul light heavyweight, who has created such a future hereabout, at the Cleveland Hotel, Brooklyn, on New Year's afternoon. This pair we recently at the same club, the week the Levinsky beat Dillon and Miske won. Bat' declares that he was staid in that bout, but that in their next meeting he will reverse the decision as he is in top form now as he has had plenty of rest lately.

A Toast

Here's holla and a hail to the coming year.
And a laugh to the year that's gone!
Here's a sigh for the battles we've fought and lost.
Here's a cheer for the victories won!
Here's a cup to forget what we care not to think!
Here's a glass that we'll drain to amend!
Here's forgiveness to him who proved false to the trust,
And more love to the dearest of friends!
