LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

BIG GAME SEASON
The big game season opens tomorrow. Already one party of sportsmen has arrived and leave in the morning with guide Jeff Morrison for the hunting grounds on the Upsalquitch.

PARISH INVESTIGATION
Besides the cases pending against Chief Crawford a citizen has laid a serious charge against him and the police committee will hold an investigation here Thursday evening.

BORN

and Mrs. James Rank, a daughter.
At Campbellton, Sept. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, a daughter.
At Campbellton, Sept. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plang, a son.

A SEASONABLE WINDOW Mr. C. F. Clark usually has an as-tructive window, but now that the hunting season is on, it is more than usual interest in the "sporting fraternity. There is displayed a fine stock of firearms and all needed equipment.

FARMERS' HEADQUARTERS An announcement is made that the provincial department of agriculture will erect a marquee on the Fredericton exhibition grounds to be used as headquarters for farmers and dairymen and fruit growers association.
This is proposed to hold meetings and have addresses on various branches of agricultural work.

A BRAND NEW TOWN McGivney's Junction is a brand new town in York County, a little south east of Hartland. It is situated on the Nashua and is the point where the L. C. R. crosses the G. T. P. It is the headquarters of the Toronto Construction Company, who has the largest contract in New Brunswick on the G.
T. P. Ry. It is a regular railway camp town, most of its inhabitants being officials and employees of the Toronto Company. The company has the contract for doing all the work from Chipman to Plaster Rock—a distance of 106 miles.

A RIOT IN GASPE
A serious riot has broken out among the fishermen at Fox River, about 40 miles from Gaspe. On the 7th instant about 500 men assembled around the establishment of Wm. Fraing & Co. and Wm. Hyman & Son, demanding four dollars per quintal for fish. They mobbed Hyman & Son. The manager of the W. Fraing & Co. establishment, Mr. Brian, was interrupted, and while six men lashed him to a fence, one or two struck him on the face and another held a revolver to his head.
Giving him two minutes to sign a paper granting their request or else on the spot. To save the lives of others and the property of the company, he granted their request. The merchants then closed their stores and left with their clerks for Gaspe.

APPEAL FOR PHOTOGRAPHS
The New Brunswick Tourist Association is preparing to issue a Provincial Booklet for 1910, and is desirous of securing a number of new pictures. Amateur and professional photographers who have views they think would add to the attractiveness of the booklet are requested to send copies addressed to the secretary of the New Brunswick Tourist Association, St.
John, N. B. Scenic views and pictures of fishing and hunting life are wanted. Each picture should be clearly marked on the back to indicate the view it represents. The association will return all photographs not wanted and will pay for any kept in use.
It is hoped that all who have good pictures will promptly respond to this appeal.

LECTURE FRIDAY
Mrs. Gordon Wright, Dominion President W. C. T. U. who is to speak in the Opera House on Friday, 17th inst. is well known as an able and eloquent speaker. At Chatham, Ont. where Mrs. Wright recently lectured in the Opera House, numbers were turned away and the doors locked to prevent a jam. The Chatham Planet, reporting the address says: "Mrs.
Wright is a living contradiction of the erroneous belief that women were never meant to be public speakers." Honoured the date, Friday, 8 o'clock. Bright music. Silver collection. Chairman, Mayor Murray.
Mrs. Wright will address a meeting in the W. C. T. U. hall on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. All women are cordially invited to attend.
While in town Mrs. Wright will be the guest of Mrs. Geo. G. McKenzie.

A CLEAN ELECTION
We are glad that Councillor Maw-hinney is able to state in his card of thanks that he obtained his splendid majority at the council election in the parish of Colborne without the use of liquor or any undue influence.
We have heard from other sources that there was an implied agreement by all the candidates and their agents to run a clean election. And no doubt this is the reason that such good order prevailed during the polling on election day. The result of the balloting was as follows: There were 376 votes cast of which 64 were plumpers and 302 split votes; the count being: Wm. Mawhinney, 151; John C.
McLean, 136; and John H. Galbraith, 79. The sixty four plumpers were divided among the candidates as follows: Mawhinney 23; McLean 26; Galbraith 16. And there were four votes lost by spoiled ballots, of which Maw-hinney lost two votes, and the other candidates lost one vote each.
