street of Toronto-Infant Pugs. The World knows of two red-letter days at least in the eventful history of Mark Checkley. The first, when, dressed in son velvet, with feathers in his cap, he was introduced by Harry piper to the Princess Louise as lion-tamer and of Romeo and Juliet; the second, when last evening, Mr. Joseph Pop, the refere on the occasion, declared that the lion tamer of yore was the victor in the battle just fought with James Moriarty.

The contest last night at Albert hall was the nearest thing to a prize fight that has been seen in Toronto for years. Both men were severely punished and bled profusely. At the finish Moriarty was bleed ing from half a dozen wounds, while the shirts of the men were all spotted with -The great results which have attended the regular use of Quinine Wine, by people of delicate constitution and those affected with a general prostration of the system, speak more than all the words that we can say in its behalf. This article is a true medicine and a life giving principle—a perfect renovator of the whole system—invigorating at the same time both body and mind. Its medicial prop-erties are a fobrifuge tonic and anti-periodic. Small doses, frequently repeated, strengthen the pulse, create an appetite, enable you to ob-tain retreshing sleep, and to feel and know that every fibre and tissue of your system is being braced and renovated. In the fine Quinne Wine, prepared by Northrup and Lyman, Toronto, we have the exact tonic re-quired; and to persons of weak and nervous constitutions we would say: Never be without a, bottle in the house.
