

Of the One who went down to the grave
To open a way to the glory
For all who would come and be saved
By faith on this wonderful story.

It cheers us 'mid sorrow and care,
But we'll know its deep mysteries never
Till we have them unfolded up there
In the holy and happy forever.