REPORTATION IN TRADE.

Reform, reform is the cry of the day, While old fashioned habits are passing away While caloriet has trimphed, so plainly twould see O'er the old fashioned method of puthing by steam

Let us glance at Toronto, which a few years ago, Was dark Muddy York, as you very well know, And see it to-day, indict our cities the best, And doservedly styled, the Queen of the West.

Just look, if you please, at its elegant homes,— Its beautiful churches, their spires and their domes While its fin. public buildings, creeted with taste, Adam "he site of some old marsh) waste

Its marshes have fied by the nid of our drains, its forests are open'd by the speed of our trains. The jest we have seen, the present we see, Well, well, we may ask, what the future will be.

Even now, where the waves of Ontario roor, And dash their white spray on the long beaten shore, That spot so long secred does science invade, And the billows give place to a grand Esplanade

But reforms as important as these have been made, Which greatly have altered the aspect of trade, Old styles and old habits, old prices have past, And customs much better are practised at last

The Boxners, for instance, which a few years ago Would cost you a dollar and a-quarter, or so. A much finer etyle you now may procure, Por less than one fourth of that aum, I am sure

Nor did you then think that the terms were hard, If you bought a good print for a shifling per yard. But now you may purchase for half of that price, A cloth quite as good, and a style just as nice

Will you call at McDON VLD'S! if it is but to try, From his well softed block how cheap you can buy And we venture to say, when you look through his blore, You will wonder you never have found it before

The a three story house, with the front printed white, Which makes its appearance both graceful and light, With very large figures, which you plainly may see, Describing its number as ORE HENDING AND THREE
