

COURSE OF STUDY.

C. S. KEITH, VICE-CHANCELLOR.

All persons wishing to take the Good Templars' Course of Study will write to the Chancellor, inclosing a money order, draft or check for $5.50 or $3.50 as you want cloth bound or paper books, with a registration blank signed, and you will receive books free from expense and be enrolled as a regular student. Registration blanks will be furnished by the Chancellor at any time on application to S. B. Chase, Chancellor, Easton, Pa., U. S. A.

The books read by the classes this year are:

- Alcohol and History*, by Rev. Dr. Richard Eddy.
- The People vs. The Liquor Traffic*, by Hon. John B. Finch.
- Bread and Beer*, by Mary Dwinell Chellis.
- The Templar at Work*, by F. J. Sibley.
- Brief Notes for Temperance Teachers*, by B. W. Richardson, M. D., F. R. S.
- The Two Chains*, by Rev. Wm. F. Crafts.
- International Good Templar, a Monthly Magazine, and the Official Organ of the R. W. G. Lodge.*

COURSE OF STUDY.

DEAR READER:—On behalf of the educational department of our Order, I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Our students seem to be getting along in fine style, and are now writing their examination papers.

We should like to form a new class for 1894. Who will join?

Yours for improvement,
C. S. KEITH,
Vice-Chanc'r.
