

TOMBSTONES are often erected over persons who would to-day be alive and well if they had put prejudice and poisonous drugs aside and accepted the honest offer we have been making them for years past. That offer is, that we will send to any one sick or ailing, our Electric Medicated Appliances to suit their case on 30 days trial. If no cure is made we make no charge whatever. Is not this a fair offer? We are daily curing acute cases of Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Debility, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys and Lungs, &c. Illustrated book giving prices and full particulars, and blank for statement, to be sent free. Address

RAPID WORK.
"For two years I was troubled with dyspepsia, could neither labor nor find relief. Less than one bottle of B. B. B. relieved me—three bottles cured me." So says John A. Rappell, of Farnerville Burdock Blood Bitters cures dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaints, and all varieties of the system.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPP'S COCOA!
BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—Civil Service Gazette.

Harper's Weekly
ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly has now, for more than twenty years, maintained its position as the leading illustrated weekly newspaper in America. With a constant increase of literary and artistic resources, it is able to offer for the ensuing year attractions unequalled by any previous volume, containing two capital illustrated serial stories, one by Mr. Thomas Hardy, among the foremost of living writers of fiction, and the other by Mr. Walter Besant, one of the most rapidly rising of English novelists; graphic illustrations of unusual interest to readers in all sections of the country; entertaining short stories, mostly illustrated, by the best writers, and important papers by high authorities on the chief topics of the day.

Every one who desires a trustworthy political guide, an entertaining and instructive family journal, entirely free from objectionable features in either letter press or illustrations, should subscribe to Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Magazine
ILLUSTRATED.

The December Number will begin the Seventh second Volume of Harper's Magazine, Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angles," and Mr. Howells' "Indian Summer"—holding the foremost place in serial fiction will run through several numbers, and will be followed by serial stories from R. D. Blackmore and Mrs. M. Craik. A new editorial department, discussing topics suggested by the current literature of America and Europe, will be contributed by W. D. Howells, beginning with the January Number. The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers—taking the shape of a story, and affording characteristic features of American society seen at our leading pleasure resorts—written by Charles Dudley Warner, and illustrated by C. S. Reinhart. The Magazine will give especial attention to American subjects, treated by the best American writers, and illustrated by leading American artists.
