REPORTS, &amp;c.

The Gulf lighthouse keepers report that the tides have of late run from four to five feet lower than known for the last fifty years. This fact is said to preannunciate furious storms and dirty weather this fall.

Ship Mary Stewart, at Quebec, is receiving an entire new keel and a good portion of her bottom has to be replanked. Repairs will be finished in about three weeks.

Barque Harold, Power at New York from Dunkirk, reports Aug 26, lat 41 13, lon 62 32, light easterly winds and excessively heavy rain, took in everything to lower topsails, at 4 p m barometer 29 80, hard squalls and heavy swell from W S W, and western horizon one mass of light ding, wind W S W, at 6 30 p m barometer 29 51, and squalls lower topsail blew out of bolt ropes; at 6 45 p m barometer fell in 10 minutes from 29 40 to 28 31, and at 7 15 p m a cyclone burst over the ship, throwing her on her beam ends and enveloping the ship in a mass of blinding drift, wind SW, barometer 28 20, at 8 30 p m barometer 28 10, wind flew into NW and blew more fiercely than before, knocking fore and mainmast away in the head and carrying away topgallantmasts and yards attached, and blowing away every square sail except the mainmast; at 9 45 p m glass rose to 28 40, and with one terrific gust the cyclone passed over us.

Barque Geo Davis, at Wilmington, NC, from Liverpool, reports Aug 9, about lat 49, lon 5 49, experienced a hurricane, during which lat and split three topmasts, two topgallantmasts, one foremast, two stay-alls, parted braces and lifts, washed tarpaulins from hatches, shifted ballast and lost all the drinking water except one small cask.

Barque Susan L Campbell, 727 tons, built at Weymouth, NS, in 1875, and till recently hauling from that port, has had her name changed to Isabella.

EDUCATION OF THE BLIND.

The Parents or Friends of Blind Children residing in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or P. E. Island, will find full particulars of the Halifax School for the Blind, in Belcher's, McMillan's, and Chaplin's Almanacs. The Superintendent of the Institution is anxious to obtain names, Ages, and Post Office Address of all blind persons in the Maritime Provinces. Clergymen and Physicians are in a position to supply this information, and will confer a favour by so doing.
