

UPS AND DOWNS

Published Under the Auspices of Dr. Barnardo's Homes

Vol. III.]

OCTOBER 1st, 1897.

[No. 1.

PERSONAL NOTES

DURING the process of going through the ordeal of a newspaper interview a short time ago I was asked the question, "Do your boys as a rule appreciate what has been done for them by ceeded the interviewer, "that as they begin to earn wages and to get on in the world they contribute considerably towards carrying on the work at home." "No, I am afraid that is hardly yet the case." I w

PRIZE CATTLE AT THE TORONTO EXHIBITION—THE HOLSTEIN QUEEN

Dr. Barnardo?" I replied, "Undoubtedly they do, and I believe generally there exists, especially among the older boys, a very warm and grateful feeling towards the old Homes." "And I suppose," pro obliged to reply; "I must admit our boys do not contribute as liberally, or as generously, as we might expect, and although there are some very bright exceptions, as the rule I must plead guilty for them, that they