BOARDING HOUSE COMMITTEE.

ALREADY we are beginning to receive tokens of blessing attending the work of this Committee, in the increasing number of young men coming to the rooms.

The central part of the city has been divided into ten districts, to each of which tried workers have been assigned. While visiting the houses, many young men are met with who seem to hesitate when asked to visit the rooms, and urge as a reason why they do not come, that "they are not acquainted with the members or officers." To remedy this we have provided a very neat card of introduction, which reads as follows:

To the General Secretary of the Toronto Young Men's Christian Association, Shaftesbury Hall, (Cor. Queen and James Streets).—This will introduce Mr.....at present boarding at.....Street. Any courtesies extended to him will be duly appreciated.

The following circular has also been issued by the Chairman:

MAY 3RD, 1882.

MY DEAR SIR,—It has been ascertained that some of the districts assigned to workers are too large to be thoroughly visited. A new plan has therefore been prepared, and hereafter your district will be No. .... bounded by the following Streets:.....

It is expected that you will visit as far as possible each Boarding House and Hotel within the limits named; and that you will endeavour to converse with young men, and invite them to our meetings. You will be supplied with Introduction Cards, a judicious use of which will no doubt enable you to secure the attendance of many of the more retiring or diffident strangers. To prevent any misunderstanding as to your district, it will be wise to consult the coloured "District" Map hanging in the Rooms.

It is confidently hoped that you will make this (the most important part of our work) a subject of earnest prayer. If the work be thus prayerfully prosecuted, it cannot fail to result in the glory of God and the welfare and conversion of young men. Remember, "It is required in stewards, that a MAN be found faithful."

Yours,

J. J. FINDLAY,
Ch. Boarding House Com.

The Chairman will be pleased to re-
