is very descriptive of this grand-thoroughlare of the world, and now give it for, the benefit of the Canadian public:

"The railways here, that is in England, are not better than our own. Either the English reads have deterfereded, or else our own have appreciated, fassume that the fastest train on the direct line between Liverpool and London may be taken as a fair sample, and compared with similar trains on its earning, and compared with similar trains on the New York and Eric Railway at home-with the New York and Eric Railway at home-with which I a most far-illar. From Liverpool to London two hundred and twenty miles, through first-class fare is thirty-live shillings ay an ine dollar on the New York and Eric from New York to the west end of Suspension Bridge, in Canada, distance upwards of four hundred and fifty miles, in drawing room c.a.c.h, the fave is nine dollars and twenty-live cents. We ride in by far the most elegant coaches on the Eric than here in England, and at only one half the cost. We ride as fast, too, on the Eric as in England, about chrty-nine miles on the Eric as in England, about chrty-nine miles on Metion on the New York and Eric is like roiling and oil; but here we rathe in our seats like the pairs in a wheelbarrow. Here there are four wheels under a coach, on the New York and Eric is like the pairs in a wheelbarrow. Here there are four wheels under a coach on the New York and Eric talk, and impossible to write; on the Eric I do both intelligibly. I am proudly surprised, after any particular that effects a tray-iler—no, not oven in the matter of dust and ashes."

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

THE ALDINE:

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL

claimed to be the

HANDSOMERT PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admication for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."—Heary Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscollany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest speciarine, of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unappreciated—absolutely without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volumist completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

New Features for 1872.—Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standing of illustrated puplications. That so many weekly wicked shoets exist and thrive is no evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so wast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the oxcellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, speciments from the following eminent American Artists.

W. T. RICHARDS,

GRANY. PERRINS.

W. T. RICHARDS, WM. HART, WM. HART, GEORGE SMILEY, AUG. WILL, JAMES SMILEY, FRANK BEARD, J. HOWS.

GRANY. PERRINS, F. O. C. DARLEY, VICTOR NEILLIZ, VM. H. WILCOX, JAMES H. BERRD, R. E. PIGUET, PAUL DIXON,

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravors in the country, and will bear the very severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vimilication of American taste in comparities with bo a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration any get up of the work, to nuch dependance on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such nusciplings, is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THI ALDING, has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddart, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872,

will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 250 and engavings. Commoncing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautifully tinted picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiecom.

A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Sois, entitled "Daine Nature's School." The chrome is 11 x 13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile, in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American obrone, which will at all compare with it, has yet been of ferred at retail for less than the price asked for THE ALDINE and it togother. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in udvance.
