

THE FISHERIES.—The Nova Scotian of the 13th November ultimo, in detailing the wealth of Nova Scotia, its mines, and the spirit of enterprise and activity that are unfolding themselves in all quarters of that province, states the produce of the fisheries, which during the Tuesday and Wednesday next preceding that date, had entered Halifax, at the value of £200,000. At sight of these reports we cannot but facilitate our industrious neighbours on their progress, participating with them in their hopes of prosperity and of greatness, which their activity and industry promise them. But we cannot at the same time avoid making on our own state in this respect, the most painful and humiliating reflections. The single capital town (Halifax) of Nova Scotia, receives in two days of its fisheries, a perfect product or return valued at £200,000, which it prepares for immediate exportation, while we, who have at our door, fisheries vastly richer than they, what do we export to Quebec? Has a single vessel laden with the fish loaf, our port this autumn? Not one.

MARINE DISASTERS.—The eastern American papers give numerous details of shipwrecks, accompanied by loss of life, during the storm of the 23rd ult. A schooner struck on a ledge near Rockport, Me., and it is supposed that all hands perished. The cabin and hatches of another vessel drifted on shore near Boston; the entire crew was supposed to be lost.

The inhabitants of the Magdalen Islands, have petitioned the Queen, praying that they may be detached from Canada, and annexed to Nova Scotia, on the ground that the Government of Canada pays no attention to their interests.
