N.N

5 :

THE TRUE WITNESS - AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE

was not drunk.

Order Reigns in Warsaw-Thanks to the Special Constables.

On Friday every precaution was taken

LOADED IN THE PRESENCE OF THE ORANGEMEN.

VIOLATED THE MILITARY REGULATIONS

their batons and badges, they were dismissed.

volunteer who had thus

Montreal there is nothing to choose-the murder of Hackett by the latter and the more recent riots towards Point St. Charles being of a piece with the attack on the Catholic procession in Toronto. But there was this difference :- At Toronto the municipal authorities gave the procession thorough protection; at Montreal, through culpable negligence in allowing a mob to assemble and take possession of the streets, and through cowardice in dealing with it subsequently, Mayor Beaudry and his associates sowed the seeds which have borne during the past twelvemonth so fruitful a harvest of assassination, riot and outrage, and insured to Montreal, for many years to come, a repetition of these evil scenes.

"Not much to choose," says the World-a great deal to choose, say we. The "municipal authorities of Toronto gave protection " to a Catholic procession, says the World. All well, but the World is as blind as a bat. A Protestant procession in the streets of Mon. of Fortification lane was perceived by the would not be attacked. Not only would the hand, they followed him up St. Urba n street, "municipal authorities protect" a Protestant procession, but the Catholic neonle would not procession, but the Catholic people would protect it too. The World knows nothing at all in profusion, was obliged to run up St. Lawjects to Protestant processions. Protestants have as much right to walk the streets as any one else. Let the Protestants of Montreal determine to walk as Protestants, and we would street also paraded the streets with form a guard of honor for them. But, Orangeism_there's the rub. Ascendancy_insult, but they did not long continue to do so, as Protestantism has nothing to do with it, and the World ought to know it, although it is Catholic to feel it.

THE TWELFTH.

The following was read in St. Patrick's, St. Ann's, St. Bridget's and St. Gabriel's Churches on Sunday :--- excitement of feelings and the fiercest connict of passions, he gave us a peace which carnestly that our Heavenly Father may contirm and make lasting amongst us so great and so unexpected a mercy.

The victory obtained was not obtained with God of charity over the demon of hatred and discord; the victory of our dear old city of Montreal over her worst enemies, whether they live here or elsewhere. This being the unwise, it would be wicked; it would be takalone did; it would be, besides, a destroying of the holy work of God. In the boys?" One of the party answering in the fulness of our gratitude, let us, dearest Brethern, show ourselves true children of the God of charity and of peace. Let the miserable past be forgotten, and carefully abstain from giving offence to any one. Rather receive than inflict an injury. Be peace makers for God's sake, for your own sake, and for the general welfare of our city. Let us hope that the sad and costly experience of late events will have its effect on every citizen of Montreal. In a mixed community like ours, there can be no peace, unless the feelings and convictions of others are treated with tenderness and respect. This evident fact was disregarded. Let us hope that such a fatal mistake may never be committed again. I am sure, that in the future, as in the past, Catholics will not fail to give the first example of this tenderness and respect for the convictions of their fellow citizens. I thank you from my heart, for your religious fidelity in following the advice I gave you, to abstain from drink on the 12th. You have now a rich reward in the respect of every good man, in the peace of your own conscience, and in the blessing of tect Hurst's compan on from the vengeance of the crowd, received a blow on the back of the head with a stone which caused blood to for freely. His wounds, however, are of a sight character. It now appears that this murning His Worship the Mayor gave the Orangemen one-half hour, during which their leaders could either surrender themselves to the authorities or atlempt to mark, but they were assured that in the event of choosing the latter alternative they would be held responsible to the laws of the land, and would, in any case, find themselves is custody. Last evening Mr. E. McKeown, J.P., of St. Gabriel's, swore in ninety special constables whom he this morning marched into town for the purpose of aiding the Mayor in PRESERVING THE PEACE OF THE CITY.

THE ORANGE ANNIVERSARY. (Continued from first page.)

Mr. Knox, Secretary of one of the lodges of Young Britons while leaving the hall by way treal would not require protection, because it crowd; and as he had a bunch of lilies in his

DISPLAYED PARTY EMBLEME

about it. No one in Montreal or out of it ob- rence street, where he managed to take refuge in a building occupied by a brother Orangeman, and the crowd not desiring to do any damage to the property dispersed without any further disturbance. Two men in Craig

ORANGE COLORS.

wrong, murder-that's where the shoe pinches. their actions were watched, and a charge was made upon them which they could not with-Their lightness of foot, however, prestand. vented them from falling into the power of hard, very hard, for any one but an Irish their foes. On the Champ de Mars, a man, whose name is said to be Johnson, walked up and down in front of a few French Canadians who were seated on the steps, but was soon met by an individual who, though his junior by several years, succeeded in knocking him down and otherwise injuring him. It is complained that some of DEAR BRETHREN, On Sunday last I asked the police on duty in the locality of the you to offer fervent prayers to God for peace | Orange hall show purtiality. It is positively on the 12th. Our good God was pleased to asserted that Sergeant Hynes was this afterhear our supplications, controling the wildest noon fully an hour in conversation with a prominent Orangeman, and that when the police, in the discharge of their duty, ordered could come from Him alone. To-day it is all parties to move on, the Sergeant recalled our happy duty to send up fervent acts of this individual, who is said to be a prominent thanksgiving. We shall continue to pray member of the Order, and protected him from interference at the hands of the constables. This happened in front of the Hochelaga Bank this afternoon, and a number of Catholics who were present naturally felt aggrieved blood, nor even saddened by any kind of vio- that, on such an occasion as the present, parlence. It is not your victory nor mine. It | tiality should be shown towards one party or is not a victory of Catholics over Protestants, the other. Last night between 11 and 12 it is the victory of peace, the victory of the oclock a corporal of the 6th Fusiliers, while in a drunken condition, passed through St. James street and acted as a policeman, ordering all persons whom he met to retire to their homes, and threatening to do damage case, boasting or bravado would not be only | incalculable to anything or anybody Catholic. Meeting several parties near Flace d'Arms ing to ourselves the praise of what God Square, he entered into conversation with them and asked if they "belonged to the

affirmative, the corporal answered, "THAT'S RIGHT, STAND BY YOUR COLORS,

and we'll give the sons of ---- something tomorrow." He also made use of other choice expressions, among others, " to hell with the green;" "it's the color I'll stand by, and die for." In the meantime a Herald reporter arrived and advised him to go home, but as the latter would not do so, the representative of the fourth estate went away and brought four men with him, who after a while succeeded in bringing him to his quarters.

While the Young Britons were in their hall they amused themselves by playing party tunes, and in fact one of the Order went so far as to attempt to get up a cheer from the emblems badges and other insignin. The other prisoners are confined in the Court House, whence they will be, this evening, unveyed to the gaol.

Among other articles found on the Orangemen arrested were telegraph despatches from the Provinces, and receipts for arms and ammunition received from generous parties ; also smile at the comical spectacle. a despatch from Toronto, found on Mr. J. Hamilton, in answer to one of his just sent, saying they would come to Montreal immediately.

A lamentable accident happened at about three o'clock this afternoon. A man named Mignon, while handling a revolver in the Remissed by one of the old employees, as he corder's Hotel, Jacques Cartier Square, shot himself through the forehead. The ball entered the brain and he fell dead instantly, The man whom we represented in our first edition as Thomas Inglis is Thomos Ingram. He is foreman at Brown & Clagget's and lives at No. 12 City Councillors street. We also made a mistake in saying that the Orangemen left the hall at the solicitation of Mayor Beaudry. A few certainly left; the great body remained inside until the special constables -as they required-should be sent away. The constables went off, but the brethren drumming away to their hearts' content and waiting for reinforcements (as is reported) from Toronto and Kingston. Both from the windows looking into Fortification lane and men with Spencer rifles from those looking into St. James street, they did their best by waving banners, emblems, handkerchiefs and such like, at the same time shouting "To h-ll with Pope and Popery," and other observations of the same nature not at all tending to soothe the feelings of the majority of those within ear-shot. A female rather aged, and ugly at that, was making her way through Fortification Lane, her headgear being gaily decorated with flowers of all colors, and while passing the windows of the Orange Hall waved her umbrella to the boys looking out. Some excitement immediately ensued, and it was with great difficulty that the special constables on duty at that point, prevailed upon her to leave. Eventually she was seen safe through the crowd, shouting defiance to Catholics in general, and the Pope in particular. The unfortunate creature was partly under the influence of liquor at the time.

STILL REMAINED,

after handing over to the officer in charge This afternoon the Huntingdon troops formed a line across each side of Place d'Armes square, and prevented parties from passing in that direction to the Orange Hall or locality. One of our reporters approached the officer in command, and requested that he be allowed the privilege of passing on the ground that he was a representative of the press, but the officer, not perhaps, understanding the nature of the statement, said he did not want to and refused to allow him to pass. About 2.50 a guard of two mon was stationed at the door of the hall, but were soon after removed. The mayor, who was present throughout, endeavored to do all in his power to maintain order, and was ably assisted by a number of aldermen and other magistrates.

BUY ANY PRESS,

One of the members of the Prince of Wales' themselves of their clothing, jumped in after Rifles named Pringle went round the streets him. At a late hour in the evening, the newhile in an intoxicated condition, and insulted every person who came in his way. He cessary steps were taken to was arrested, but was soon after released, on the promise to go to his home.

After considerable discussion between the Mayor, the Aldermen, magistrates and Orange leaders, His Worship said that he not only would be

OUITE WILLING.

but would consider himself bound, as chief magistrate, to protect them on their way to their homes, provided they went without ro- and would have punished them for their imgalia or colors. The brethren were at a loss the well known Pawnbroker of McGill street. The Protestant Press is very angry because Mr. Leader keeps driving all over and exhibits none of the Catholics or a diminutive Scotch terrier dancing, in order to balance itself on the back of the horse, committed an avert act which would justify Wherever he goes there are cheers and laughter, and many an impassioned heart forgets the subject for general remark last night that party feelings for the moment to indulge in a the city was never so profoundly quict. The magistrates exerted themselves in all direc-The following new arrests were made since tions, helping the special constables to keep our last report :- William End, drunk and the crowd from collecting, and noticeably having in his possession two loaded revolamongst them Messrs. William Wilson and vers ; Michael Brennan, for having one loaded F. B. McNamee who, by influence, voice and revolver. The O. Y. B. arrested by J. G. Bell gesture, did all they could in furtherance of and lodged in the Juror street station, was dislaw and order and succeeded admirably. The statement that Ingram had been released by

SPECIAL CONSTABLES

LEAVING REGALIA AS SECURITY was incorrectly communicated to our reporter at the time of the occurrence. During the day prevent any disturbance at or near the Welnearly all the saloons and in fact almost [federacy" are applicable to the Orange Aslington Bridge, Sergeant Glynn and a numall places of business in the central ber of men armed with Spencer rifles being portion of the city were closed, and, consideron guard throughout the day. After the Young Britons and 'Prentice Boys had been ing the number of persons on the street, the number of cases of intoxication was but small. sent home in carriages from the Orange Hall, Last night there were several street brawls, a number of Orangemen, who still remained, caused by drunken men of both parties enterrefused to depart unless the special constables, ing into argument on the question of the day. who occupied the centre of the street, were Nothing serious, however, occurred during removed and replaced by the volunteers. This the night. The police were extra vigilant, was agreed to, and after a short time the and patrolled from sunset till daybreak the Orangemen left the building in carriages, different portions of the city. On the armory three being in each, guarded by two police- and the City Hall the

GUARDS WERE DOUBLED,

in order to frustrate any attempt to attack these Government buildings. An hospital Shortly before six o'clock the various city camp was erected on Dominion Square, and corps marched through St. James street on here the doctor had to minister to the their way to their respective armories, and wants of twenty-seven patients ; of were loudly cheered, the 65th and the St. these two cases were of sunstroke. lean Baptiste Infantry especially being well one of epilepsy, and the rest weakness caused received. One of the Montreal Garrison Arby exposure to the heat of the sun. Dr. tillery, when that corps was marching past Camphell was in attendance assisted by some St. Lambert Hill, ran out of the ranks for the other of our well-known city physicians. On OFFICE OF THE MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS, purpose of attacking some person who had the whole the day passed off quietly, and made use of some remark not pleasing to much of this is due to the firm stand of the him. The officer in command ordered the Mayor, and the admirable manner in which the men of the city police force did their special constables obeyed the orders of those to give up his rifle, but this he refused to do, and here the matter ended. About a quarter past six o'clock the special constables were removed of being aninadverted on, should be given you some trouble. from the vicinity of the trouble of the day, applauded and admired. and marched to the Central Station, where,

THE PRESERVATION OF THE PEACE.

The following correspondence between the of Montreal. It reaches us at too late an hour to permit of any remarks ;---

OFFICE OF THE MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS, CANADA. OTTAWA, June 18, 1878.

DEAR Sig-I feel very great anxiety about the occasion of the Orange celebration in that given with a will. One of the Quebecers, while getting on the boat, fell into the river, to secure the preservation of order on that but was immediately rescued, no less than six of his comrades having, without divesting

Of course, I am quite aware that the maintenance of order is in the hands of the local authorities, but I am desirous of aiding, as far dvisable to do.

About half-past six o'clock, while the Mayor I have observed lately a communication in was driving along Notre Dame street, in company with some other gentlemen, he was hooted by a crowd standing at the corner of St. John street. Some parties passing at the time made a charge on the howling roughs, pertinence had they not taken refuge in a muel in this case if the parties interested felt disposed to dispense with their procession. They, however, are disposed to claim the right which all persons possess of appearing in this way in the public streets and I cannot help thinking that it would be a wise course for the authorities of the city to let it be understood that in the exercise of such right they will be protected. I had communication with some representatives of the Orange body when lately in Toronto, and I pressed upon them the advisability of their remaining at home, instead of going to Montreal on the 12th July. I feel quite certain that if you felt at liberty to angeman, came to the General Hospital, and have no strangers in your city on that day, adopt the course I have indicated you would and the intensity of the public interest which centres upon the possible events of the day would be relaxed, and the proceedings would be looked upon as the ordinary proceedings which often take place on such occasions in other localities. In any case I will be glad to hear from you

If, as they pretend, they form a legal sowatking in the start walking in the streets, of course they are en-titled to the fallest protection ; but if they have not the same character, if on the contrary. the using of the military. Indeed it was the they are prohibited by a positive Statute, then what would be the justification of magistrates or the justices of the peace or other officials who would undertake to countenance their proceedings?

In connection with this question be kind enough to allow me to refer to the following Statutes :- 2nd Vic. (2nd), chap. 8. 36; Consolidated Statutes L. C., chap. 10; 29 Vict., chap. 46.

The first Statute above mentioned is based nearly word for word on the Imperial Statute 39th George III., chap. 79.

1 am advised that in section 6 of 2nd Vic., by a gentleman who said he had been present | (2) chap. 8, several of the distinctive features constituting "an illegal combination or consociation. Should that interpretation be the correct one, what do you think I ought to do?

Did I not fear to trespass upon your kindness, I would respectfully suggest that the opinion of the law officers of the Dominion be solicited on the Statutes quoted ; thus the pretensions of parties could be settled, and the present difficulty greatly lessened.

In conclusion, allow me to assure you of my determination to do my duty within the limits of the legality, and that I will receive with gratitude and very sincere thanks any observation you may please to address to me in answer to the above. I have the honor to be, sir. Your obedient servant.

J. L. BEAGDRY

Mayor.

The Hon. Alex. Mackenzic.

Premier. Ottawa.

CANADA.

ОТТАЖА, July 3, 1878. DEAR SIR,-Your letter of 21st June, in reply to mine of June 18th, respecting the anduty. It was generally remarked that the the proceedings on the 12th July, was received during my absence from Ottawa. 1 in command of them with alacrity, and with now propose to refer to one or two points few exceptions their conduct, instead which you mention in your letter as having

You state that "the local authorities have the necessary power to preserve the peaco within the limits of the city and amongst' its own citizens, but the real danger comes evidently from the large number of persons who declare their intention of coming from other Provinces into Montreal to impose upon a Premier and the Mayor, in relation to the preervation of the peace on the recent 12th of which is most distasteful to them ;" and you July, will be read with interest by the people ask if, in such an emergency, you have not a right to be protected by the Federal Government against attacks coming from outside. In reply I have to sny that it makes no difference whatever, in regard to the legal or moral obligations imposed upon the local or provincial authorities, if there should be any the maintenance of the peace in Montreal on | rioting, where the rioters may come from, as the magistrates of another province cannot city on the 12th proximo, and would be glad follow their citizens into the Province of to know what measure you propose to adopt Quebec, and the Federal Government have no power whatever under the law to interfere with the execution of the laws in the provinces relating to the preservation of the peace. In this connection you refer to the Act of as the law permits, the Federal Government | last Session, entitled "An Act for the better to do so; and perhaps you will not seriously prevention of crimes of violence in certain object to my expressing my opinion to you parts of Canada." But you will observe of personally as to what I think it would be reading this Act that it confers no power whatever upon the Federal Government; though in any district which is proclaimed the public newspapers from the authorities of under the Act by the Federal Government, the Orange Society in Montreal, which extensive powers are conferred upon the mastates that if you would guarantee their pro- | gistrates, constables and peace officers for the tection on their march through a portion of disarming of any parties and the summary the city to church, none of the organization | dealing with offenders against the provisions referred to would go to the city from a dis-tance. It is to be regretted that any portion Montreal and the county of Hochelaga were to determine how to act, when Major Robert saloon, where they remained for some time, of the community should feel it desirable to some time ago proclaimed under this Act, Whitehead rode up to the hall, which he entrusted with all the powers which that Act confers. The next matter to which you refer is the legal existence of the Orange Association, and you state you are advised that the Act 2nd Vic., Chap. 8, Sec. 6, and the Consolidated Statutes of Lower Canada, Chap. 10, and 29 Vic., Chap. 46, should be construed as showing that the Orange Association is an "illegal combination or confederacy." You ask me, should that interpretation be a correct one, what I think you ought to do. You suggest that the opinion of the law officers of the Dominion be solicited on the statutes quoted. With regard to this, I have to state that the law officers of the Dominion have no right to give advice to the Provincial anthorities. That rests with the Attorney-General of the Province interested. But I do not think it is material whether your interpretation of the statutes in question be the correct one or not. Even in the event of the Orange Association being, as you designate it, an illegal confederacy, that would in no way relieve you, as Mayor and the magistrates and peace officers of the city, from the protection of them individually as citizens. Individuals who happen to belong to the Association in question have the same right to assemblo together for the purpose of walking in public procession that any other parties have. This would not interfere with any prosecution instituted by the local authorities for belonging to an illegal combination and the imposition of any penalty provided by such acts. Their general rights as citizens, remain, however, [intact, and it is the absolute right of every person to walk the public streets, and this may be exercised by them individually or together, and the mere fact that every person in a collection of persons walking together happens to belong to an illegal association or to several illegal associatrons does not render unlawful his act of walking the public streets alone or in company, and there is no Act that I am aware of prohibiting such processional walking. I cannot help, therefore, urging you with real danger comes evidently from the large all the energy I possess to lose no time in number of persons who declare their inten- making the most vigorous preparations in your power for maintaining the public peace. I feel confident that if you, or yourself and the other magistrates combined, intimate in some way to the public thet parties in the exercise of their rights will be protected, you will have no irruption from a distance; and you have the power under the Act to require all parties coming by trains to the city some days before the 12th, to be searched and disarmed, as well as to disarm all parties in the city itself who are likely to cause trouble. If. it is known that such vigorous steps will be taken by yourself and the magistracy of the city, I have no doubt you will get over the occasion without any difficulty. I have also to ask that you should consider. what force may be necessary, and make re-quisition either upon the Lieut-Géneral in command at Ottawa or upon the Deputy-Adjutant-General, as you deem best, at as carly a date as possible, and I will see that the troops immediately in the pay of the Dominion, as well as some other volunteer regiments are, available for the preservation of the peace .- I am, Your obed't servit,

Here the men gave three times three CHEERS FOR THE MAYOR. and after a few moments assembled in front of the Court House, where they were addressed by His Worship, who congratulated them upon the manuer in which they had performed their duties. He also said it was a source of satisfaction to all good citizens that the threatened dangers of the day had been averted. Ald. Wilson and Laberge also addressed the meeting, congratulating those present on their orderly conduct throughout the day. Mr. Curran next spoke, and after a few words in praise of the Mayor, called for three cheers for His Worship, which were

BAIL THE ORANGEMEN,

and, the necessary forms having been gone

through, they were released from custody.

THE SHOOTING BY THE VOL-UNTEERS. WHAT AN EYE WITNESS SAW. In addition to what has been already published in these columns, we are now in a posi-tion to give a statement made by Mr. R. J.

Gibson, and which he is prepared, if neces-sary, to substantiate upon oath. His version of the occurrence is substantially as follows : -On Saturday evening' he went to the field at the railway curve 'to'witness a lacrosse match, to be played between the Emmett and Linnet Clubs. There were a great many persons present awaiting the commencement of the match, when a train carrying a number of turned to their beats on St. James street. volunteers stopped at the curve, in order to allow an approaching train, which was also and prayers for Mayor Beaudry and for the laden with volunteers, to pass. The parties sugarious line of policy he pursued which in the first-mentioned train were cheering undoubtedly saved and shouting, and the boys who were in the field naturally ran towards the cars, getting on the fence in order to get a good view of what was transpiring. When the train stopped, the volunteers cheered and waved their handkerchiefs, and the boys hooted. One of the point of his bayonet, which he flourished in a most excited manner, while another waved an Orange-colored handkerchief. The crowd became excited, when one of the volunteers called for "three cheers for the Young Britons," which so enraged the boys that they fired a volley of stones at the cars when the train was about departing. One of the volunteers, who was on the platform of the car, fired off his revolver, which was followed by the discharge of thirty or forty shots. The firing ceased when the train had gone about forty yards, the last shot being fired before the engine had reached the bridge. A large num-ber of those present tried to shield themselves from the fire of the uniformed rufflans behind a tree; but, despite this, the parties were wounded as described in our issue of yesterday.

His Honbr Judge Coursol has been entrusted with the investigation into the circumstances of the case, and it is to be hoped that nothing will be left undone to bring the perpetrators of this wanton and deliberate attempt at murder to justice.

财富营营 TORONTO, July 13 .- After the Orangemen Paraded the streets, yesterday they adjourned to the Queen's Park, where about an industry people assembled. Addresses were delivered by prominents members of the Origination of whom, Mayon Bennett wild a streme beople of Montered control of the people of Montreal continued to trample on the rightsof Orangemen, we, of Ontario, would buy dur. goods elsewhere. Park Hill, the Grand Master of Ontario, said, if necessary he would, their rights. • window, but in this he was unsuccessful, receiving for his trouble only

A FEW GROANS AND HISSES.

The Union Jack, fringed with orange-colored lace, hung from one of the windows, while a similar ensign was displayed from the door. During the morning a detachment of police was stationed in rear of the premises, on Fortification lane, for the purpose of arresting of the Order who might leave any the building in regalia. While here, the gentle Britons amused themselves by substituting for the procession a game called "pitch," which consisted in throwing broken glass, pebbles and other missiles of like description at the constables. However, as the guilty parties could not be identified, no arrests were made; but the youths were notified to be more circumspect in their action for the future. Shortly after twelve o'clock, a portion of the squad of special duty men were march ed to the station, where they partook of re-freshment, after which they

RETURNED TO THEIR POST.

in order to relieve their companions in arms. About half-past one o'clock all the men re-Throughout the entire city there are thanks undoubtedly saved and desolation. Even Ald. Mercer confessed in the hearing of several gentlemen this morning that he was perforce obliged to confess the tactics of His Worship were legal, right volunteers had an Orange lily attached to the | and proper. A policeman, whose name we could not discover, was wounded on the head with a stone thrown at his head near Jacques Cartier square at about ten o'clock. At a quarter to two o'clock this afternoon the Mayor addressed the crowd near the Orange Hall in French and English and was cheered to the echo. He said that now that the law had been vindicated it hehooved all loyal and well disposed citizens to go peaceably home. He also said that this day would form an epoch in the history of the city, and that in future we should have no more heartburnings, and our prosperity, which was languisting would increase. He advised the Orangemeu to take off their offensive regalia, and acting like good citizens to go home also, and that they should not be injured. In this he was seconded by Alderman Kennedy, Mr. Bernard Tansey and other prominent citizens, and the Orangemen commenced moving one by one, though at first when the Mayor commenced speaking they

MONTREAL FROM WOE

BEAT THE DRUN

as a chorus perhaps. This morning about 200 Orangemen arrived from Cowansville. They were very hard looking cases, armed with hickory sticks, and singular to state a great many of them were blind of an eye,

EXACTLY LIKE JUSTICE.

The names of the parties who are now in custody, in addition to Masters Grant and Hamilton, are Wm. Gavin, Alex, Gibson, John Cromwell, John Lilburn and Thos. Hingrim, whose name was incorrectly mentioned in our last issue as Inglis. The last named person place himself at their head and proceed to, was admitted to bail, he having pleaded car-Montreal next 12th to secure for the brethren nestly to be allowed to go home, and, if allow-regalia provided His Worship would guarantee them protection. This was agreed to, and after some short delay it was decided to send the younger members of the Order to their homes in carriages, and accordingly a number of vehicles were summoned from the stand at Place d'Armes Square. The first car riage was loaded with four juvenile adherents to the principles of Orangism, and the second carter was about taking his load when a situation advised him to have nothing to do with driving

SUCH A CONTEMPTIBLE CREW.

Upon this the carter thus addressed drove away, as did also the majority of those who had been called upon. Ultimately, however, a sufficient number of vehicles were found to convey the majority of the junior Orangemen away from the face of danger to their homes. But the older members of the organization declined to go, and in fact tried to insist upon keeping the overgrown, who did not, however, relish the idea of being all night as well as all day in a building, which could not be considered as otherwise than in a state of siege. At one period of the day a half-intoxicated man, at the corner of St. Urbain and Craig streets, was nearly coming to grief at the hands of a mob for his partizan expressions, when Messrs. P. Hogan, the brewer, and W. Paquette, son of the hotel-keeper on Craig street, interfered in his behalf, took him into their buggy, and drove him out of harm's

A feature observable throughout the proceedings was the vigilance manifested by the Orange and pro-Orange policemen in their attention to the

GUARDING OF THE ORANGE HALL

to-day, while on yesterday it was remarked that on their way to that establishment they brought up the rear guard. Sevoral of them to-day shewed their bigotry by openly expressing their favor towards the Orangemen.

About fifty of the Young Britons had left the building, when one of them came out of the hall, and openly insulted the Catholics present, by making use of opprobrious epi-thets towards those surrounding, him. Some of the special constables went to arrest him, when a general melee ensued, and for a short time anarchy prevailed.

A messenger was sent to the Dominion Square asking for the assistance of the froops, saying that Mayor Beaudry was unable to preserve order. Shortly after one of the Orangemen was brought back to the hall, badly wounded in the face, which only served to increase the fear felt by the brethren of the order inside, who, however, had courage enough to hoot and hiss at the special constables who were stationed on the street.

At last accounts Major Whitehead had seen General Selby Smyth, who promised to be on the grounds in a short time. It is a great source of pleasure to us to be able to state that, during the day's excitement, not one man has been killed, and not one man has been even seriously wounded. Considerable amusement has been afforded ed, he would deliver up to the authorities his during the day by a turn-out of Mr. Leader tered, and after a short consultation reap-peared on the street and informed the Mayor ventured outside to reconnoitre, when that the Britons had decided that they would he was chased by the crowd, but took refuge be satisfied to walk to their homes without in a city passenger car, into which he was, however, followed and severely handled. During the excitement, before the last of the Orangemen had left the hall, Mr. . M. H. Gault accidentally received a blow of a stick from some person in the door of the hall, but he is sure it was not intended for him. When the road had been pretty well cleared a boy attempted to pass, when it was discovered that he had a regulia inside his coat, and he was knocked down, and would have been driver from another stand taking in the severely handled, but for the promptitude of the police. Last night Robert Hurst, an Orrequested to be admitted for treatment. He had a BLACK EYE AND BROKEN NOSE,

and was allowed to remain, as it was the first case of the day. Sergeant Kehoe was in-formed last mid-night that a man had been wounded on Craig street. The sergeant proceeded with all despatch to the place designated, discovered a man lying on the sidewalk, and bleeding profusely from several wounds in the head. He was conveyed to the surgery of Dr. Vilbon, who ordered his immediate removal to the General Hospital, where his wounds were dressed. From the appearance of the cuts in the head they would appear to have been INFLICTED WITH A CLUB.

The wounded man gave his name as Al-phonse Deagon, and his residence 115 St. Catherine street. The cause assigned for the assault is not known, nor are any of the circumstances connected with it. During the afternoon two young men, wearing hats with blue ribbons, were passing by the St. Law-rence Hall, when they were recognized as Britons by a crowd of boys and men, who fell upon them, and would cortainly have given them rough treatment had it not been for the interference of Mr. Stephen J. Meany, who rescued them and brought them into the Hall, where they remained until the excitement had subsided.

At half past six last night after the Orangemen had left the Hall and before the crowd had yet dispersed, a severe between two women; one of whom got severely battered about the face, while the other escaped victorious and crowing. Which was the vanquished and which was the victor is what our reporter could not discover. Last night as three boys were going along

BNCOUNTER TOOK PLACE

Inspector street, they came across some Britons who were standing on the sidewalk, and who told them to run. The boys not obeying the injunction, one of the Britons said he would make them, and thereupon but missed and ran in through a gateway. Sergeant Maher and four policemen were sent for, but although they searched for a length of time they could find no trace of the ruffianly assailant. A strong suspicion rests upon a young man whose name we will not yet mention, and his complicity may yet be discovered.

FIRED & REVOLVER.

In accordance with the advice tendered from tants were closed until the crisis had passed. demonstration.

at your earliest convenience, if you are disposed to consider my representations or advice.—Yours faithfully, A. MACRENZIE His Worship Mayor Beaudry, Montreal. A. MACRENZIE.

MONTREAL, 21st June, 1878.

DEAR SIR,-Your letter dated the 18th instant, reached me only this morning on my return from Quebec, where I had to attend the Legislative Council; this will explain the delay in answering it. In view of the imminent danger which seems to threaten our city, I cannot conceal my satisfaction at hearing of your desire to aid, as far as the law permits the Federal Government to do, in the maintenance of order, and allow me to add that your suggestions are received by me with all the respect and the consideration they desorve. I shall, therefore, avail myself of this opportunity to submit to your kind attention a few observations.

The authorities have the necessary power to preserve the peace within the limits of the city and amongst its own citizens, but the tion of coming from other Provinces into Montreal to impose upon a large portion of its citizens a demonstration which is distasteful to them. Last year, thousands of men, fully armed, invaded our city, and this year the newspapers of a neighboring Province have intimated that we should be again visited by a much larger number. In such an emergency I would ask, have we not a right to be protected by the Federal Government against attacks coming from outside, not only of our city, but of our Province? If we judge by our sad experience of last year, these men will certainly come all armed in violation of the Federal Act promulgated during last session. Whose duty is it to see that the law in that respect is rigorously enforced? I would humbly submit that this is not a mere municipal affair, and that it is incumbent upon the Federal authorities to take all the necessary measures to prevent a violation of the law.

Now, dear sir, allow me to offer a few re-In accordance with the advice tendered from marks on the desirability of protecting, with the altar, most if not all of the saloons kept all the power vested in the municipal authorby Catholics and indeed a creat many Protes- ities, the Orange Association in the intended

A. MACKENZIE, His Worship Mayor Beaudry, Montreal.