

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN.

The Penalties of Fashion—A Particularly Humane Prima Donna—The Prejudice Against Red Hair—Fratrity

Little White Peace-maker.

It was only a simple flower, But it touched so quick to the heart; I, in anger, and for a trifle, Had determined that we must part.

The Penalties of Fashion. From the Boston Herald.

The penalties of fashion inflicted on both man and woman are many and severe. Undoubtedly woman is made to suffer the most, because she is most often deficient of the rules of health.

WHO CAN GET GOVERNMENT LAND IN DAKOTA? All settlers in taking free government land in Dakota are protected from obligations to the amount of 160 acres of land, and seed, stock, implements and provisions to a reasonable amount; and also, are not liable for obligations incurred in other countries.

DOMAIN OF SCIENCE. Determine Whether Life is Extinct or Not—Weighing Thoughts—Pyrotechnic Photography—General Notes.

According to the Engineer there is no properly recorded instance of a locomotive attaining a greater speed than fifty miles an hour. Back pressure and various resistances, including that of air, will, it is asserted, prevent any higher speed than this being reached.

A Humane Little Body.

A particularly humane little body is Miss Nikita, the American prima donna, as she is shown by an incident of her last visit to Prague. Opposite her hotel was a high tower—part of the old battlements of the town—with several staircases at the summit.

Red Hair.

The prejudice against red hair is both ancient and widespread. For centuries the popular mind throughout Europe has associated hair of this unlooky color with untrustworthiness and deceit.

their intellect more accomplished, because of the mixture of the four qualities. All the Year Round.

Etiquette of the Pantry. The mistress should lead her co-operation in the task of making the pantry look attractive. Papers should be supplied for the shelves, either plain white or the gaily tinted borders that come for the purpose.

While the cook should be supplied with a sufficient number of dishcloths, mopcloths, and towels, it is not wise to be too lavish in this respect. Professors on the part of the mistress breeds extravagance in the maid.
