

Perfect Manifold Copies Can Be Made With

Waterman's
 The pen with Ideal the Clip-Cap
Fountain Pen

You press hard on a pen when making one or more carbon copies. A Waterman's Ideal writes just as smoothly as under light pressure, the ink flows just as evenly, and the copies are perfect. Manifolding ribs are rigid. There are many advantages in Waterman's Ideals which fulfill special requirements of writing. Not a Complicated Pen—but Simple and Sure for Writing
