THE CONSCRIPTION LAW AND ALIENS.—Relying upon the correctness of a verbatim copy of the Conscription Bill, published in the Herald of the 2nd inst., we spoke last week of the explicitness of the clause which brings within the Draft all able-bodied male resident foreigners, from 25 to 45 years of age, who have gone through the preliminary process for becoming citizens of the United States.

LANCASHIRE DISTRESS AND EMIGRATION.—The intelligence from the manufacturing districts is still cheering. At the Manchester Relief Committee, on Monday, Mr. Farnall reported a further decrease in the number of persons receiving assistance, caused partly by a resumption of full time working in some of the mills, partly by absorption of the operatives into other employments, and partly by emigration from nearly all parts of the cotton districts to other parts of the country, and even abroad.
