BRIEFLETS.

Dr. A. J. Devine has moved into the late Dr. Higginson's house, 268 Donald St.

Dr. A. F. Dame writes from Tijuana, Mexico, where he seems to be enjoying himself.

Mr. W. F. Russell is out on Business for the C. P. R. to the Kootenay district. B. C.

Rumor has it that the three St. Boniface graduates of this year will all take to the law.

The cold spell of the 12-15th of this month was followed by regular June heat. There has been no frost, though one day it was dreaded as possible.

There will be a great St. Jean Baptiste celebration at Oak Lake this week. Mr. Joseph Arsenault, who passed the Preliminary examinations this year, will give a humorous recitation.

The Rev. Sisters Prince, La Garde and Ste. Anne, of St. Boniface, left yesterday Tuesday by the C. P. R. on their way to Montreal where they will attend the annual retreat of the Community.

Mr. Hector Germain is laid up with blood poisoning. It is to be hoped, that he may soon recover. Mrs. Germain is alone to take care of the Dear boy, Mr. Geo. Germain and their daughter Miss Corine having left last week on a visit to the East.

The new first class cars on the C.P.R. main line are almost as nice as the Pullmans. The seats have high backs and are well upholstered. There are double windows to keep out the dust. Each car has a smoking compartment and a very neat lavatory.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. L. Cherrier, the mother of our esteemed Editor in chief is now out of danger. She had been anointed whilst her son was away on business down east. Her complete recovery seems now to be only a matter of time.

On Friday last Mrs. J. A. Mc. Innis gave birth to a dear daughter which unfortunately lived only a few minutes, long enough however to receive the grace of holy Baptism. Mrs. Mc. Innis is doing well under the circumstances. May our good wishes hasten her complete recovery.

All members of C. M. B. A. and C. O. F. are requested to the corner of Broadway and Main Street at 9.30, Sunday morning, the 26th inst, to take part in the Procession of St-Jean-Baptiste Society to attend High Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Badge to be worn.

Notes from Ste. Rose du Lac.

We have passed through the beautiful portals, the blossoming arbors of May and now, as is our wont AD JESUM PER MARIAM, we tread with reverend feet the rose petalled pathways of June, roses crimson-red for the Month of the Sacred Heart. Only the purest of the pure, might hope, in days gone by to see the Holy Grail "clothed in red samite, mystic, wonderful, red rose with beatings in it" but here, to the Sacred Heart, all sinners with penitent heart may come and find rest, nor wish to stray. Here is no loss, no waste of time; in earthly gardens, the zephyr, like the young heart is free to follow his fancy through odoriferous gardens of beauty, and at last, must expire with a sigh, for the incompleteness of love, but here is love's completeness, the perfection of self-sacrifice and self-abnegation. The generations come and go, they pass and in passing kneel at Thy sacred feet, O Lord! Thou never faileth them. Nigh upon 2,000 years, from father to son, from father to son, Thou hast never failed them, never once departed from amongst us to the bosom of Thy Eternal Father. Patiently waiting, kindly receiving all who come, filling with benediction the souls who love Thee, bestowing a foretaste on earth of the joys of Thy Presence in Heaven. Our new church is growing heavenward apace, it looms on the landscape, like a ghostly presence, for miles around. I wonder if day by day we get nearer to Heaven; at any rate we have one comfort, some day, we humbly hope to arrive on that blissful shore, whereas, our new church, though it seems so much nearer than we are now, will never go there, but only with uplifted finger point the way.

Ste Rose du Lac Manitoba. June 10th.

To the Editor Dear Sir,

I send you a few verses I lately found written by Longfellow, I think them very tender and devotional would you like to print them? they were called "The Waiting Christ-which seemed to me very Protestant, so I put the Latin title; please see if it is correct as I quote from memory. Thank you very much for printing the sonnet "Immortal Youth." It gives me great pleasure to have been the humble cause of anything so nice being written.

I think your appreciation of Gladston is excellent, just, and even merciful. Don't let them run down poor moribond Catholic Spain and be glad that an Irishman should fire the first shot at her. We know the Latin races, as dominant, are doomed, but will weep at their funeral. Dear Sir very faithfully yours M. Tucker.

DIDN'T LIKE THE RISK.

A little boy had been to church and came home crying bitterly. "What's the matter with you?" inquired his mother. "Parson says I'm to be born again; and I'm afraid I'll be a girl next time."

HOW TO MAKE A BOY HAPPY.

The average boy would be a great deal happier if somebody would invent a suit of clothes that could be taken off with one shake and put on again with one wiggle.—SOMERVILLE JOURNAL.

There are many thousands of wise women in this country who, when they found that they were suffering from weakness or disease of their distinctly womanly organisms, promptly wrote to an eminent and skillful physician, with a world-wide reputation, instead of trusting their cases to some obscure physician with but limited practice and experience. There are many reasons why a wise woman follows this course. The chances are that an obscure physician of small practice will not diagnose troubles of this nature properly. If he does, he will insist on the obnoxious examinations and local treatment from which every sensitive, modest woman shrinks.

The specialist referred to is Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Thirty years ago he discovered a wonderful medicine for diseases peculiar to women, that may be used effectively in the privacy of the home, and does away with all necessity for examinations and local treatment. This medicine is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and tones and builds up the nerves. Taken during the period of prospective maternity, it banishes the usual discomforts and makes baby's coming easy and almost painless. It insures the little new-comer's health and an ample supply of nourishment. Over ninety thousand women have testified to its marvelous merits. Medicine dealers sell it.

It is a druggist's business to give you, not to tell you, what you want.

Any traveling woman may write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and get free advice. By inclosing 31 one-cent stamps in her letter, to cover cost of customs and mailing only, she may secure a paper-covered copy of the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Cloth bound, 50 stamps.

I use them in our family with "the most satisfactory results." My wife has been cured of "sick headache" by their use. We could not do without them. Yours, etc., A. KRAMPEN.

BUYING DRUGS

Is entirely a matter of confidence, as in no other business is sophistication easier; nor does any other avenue afford so ready a means of disposing of worthless articles. You can buy a pair of shoes for $1 or $10—it's entirely a matter of quality. There is as much difference in the quality of drugs as there is in shoes, except in purchasing one you can use your own judgment, in buying the other you are entirely dependent upon the honesty and judgment of the Druggist. In one case it is only a matter of comfort and appearance, and in the other frequently of LIFE or DEATH. You can always rely with the utmost confidence on the DRUGS and Medicines which you get at
