(b) The amount of the pension or spouse's allowance payable shall, in this case, be calculated in conformity with the provisions of the Old Age Security Act governing the payment of a partial pension or a spouse's allowance, exclusively on the basis of the periods creditable under that Act.

3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Convention, the competent institution of Canada shall not be liable to pay an Old Age Security pension outside the territory of Canada unless the periods of residence, when totalized as provided in this Convention, are at least equal to the minimum period of residence required by the Old Age Security Act for the payment of a pension abroad.

(b) The spouse's allowance and the guaranteed income supplement shall be paid outside the territory of Canada only to the extent permitted by the Old Age Security Act.

Article XI

1. (a) If a person is not entitled to a disability pension, disabled contributor's child's benefit, survivor's pension, orphan's benefit or death benefit solely on the basis of the periods of insurance under the Canada Pension Plan, but is entitled to that benefit through the totalizing of periods of insurance as provided in this Convention, the competent institution of Canada shall calculate the amount of the earnings-related portion of such benefit in conformity with the provisions of the Canada Pension Plan, exclusively on the basis of the pensionable earnings credited under that Plan.

(b) The amount of the flat-rate portion of the benefit payable under the provisions of this Convention shall, in this case, be determined by multiplying:

(i) the amount of the flat-rate portion of the benefit payable under the provisions of the Canada Pension Plan

by

(ii) the fraction which represents the ratio of the periods of contributions to the Canada Pension Plan in relation to the minimum period of contributions required under the Canada Pension Plan for entitlement to that benefit.

2. No benefit shall be paid under this Article unless the contributor has reached an age at which his or her contributory period, as defined
