

that the responsibility for operating the day care centre must remain with the parents group and that Staff Side's request cannot be considered until senior management approval has been obtained.

Staff Side has undertaken to re-establish a parents group as well as to provide management with an updated copy of a survey confirming that the need for a day care within the Department still exists.

9. Other Business

i) Both parties agreed that the next EAJC meeting, which would be chaired by the Staff Side, would be held on February 28, 1990 at 2:30 p.m.