Dear Minister,

It is a pleasure to present to you the first Annual Report 1996-97 of the Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development.

The Centre and our activities have flourished in response to growing public interest and engagement, the forward thinking of your Advisory Board and your own energy, active internationalism and dedication to deeper democracy in public life and in policy making.

This report will provide you with an overview of our recent activities. It will also serve as a reference source for the public, part of our commitment to feedback and transparency.

I look forward to our next opportunity to discuss completed work and future activities.

Best wishes for every success in your second term as Foreign Minister.

Sincerely,

Steven Lee
National Director
