

In preparing for the second trip to Russia, PHL also worked with representatives of the Institute for Soviet American Relations and the Natural Resources Defense Council in Washington, in order to prepare a detailed list of NGOs currently active in the Russian Federation on a variety of environmental issues. This list is contained in this report as Appendix C.