

2. Contracting Parties shall provide each other with all legislation and administrative provisions relevant to this Article, concerning the personal data protection of their respective States.

3. Personal data exchange shall not occur until the Contracting Parties have agreed in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 21 of this Agreement, that the level of protection in their territories is equivalent.