

"Just see how a bare-handed and poorly armed people resisted terribly when it had one aim - to free itself and be independent. It was no longer even interested in what sort of independence it would achieve - whether the bourgeoisie and a reactionary system would be restored in the country - but only interested in being nationally independent. This took hold of its mind....not only Horthyists, but also workers from factories and mines are fighting here - the entire people are fighting."

One disillusioned British communist put it this way in a letter on November 3 to the editor of a well-known British weekly: "The events of the past week are enough to make any honest communist hot with shame and anger." What, then, must the feelings be of any honest and patriotic citizen.

Mr. President, the Canadian delegation has given strong support to the other United Nations decisions designed to help the Hungarian people, and we shall also wholeheartedly support the present draft resolution dealing with the cruel deportation of men, women and children from their native land. We can pray that by focussing the spotlight of world opinion on this cruel and inhuman operation we may help to bring to an end the martyrdom of a brave people.
