

Incapacitated War Service elector

34. If a War Service elector is unable to read or write, or is incapacitated from any physical cause, and therefore unable to vote in the manner prescribed in these Regulations, the commissioned officer before whom the vote is to be cast, shall assist such elector by marking the ballot paper in the manner directed by the elector, in his presence and in the presence of another War Service elector who is able to read and to write. Such other elector shall be selected by the incapacitated War Service elector.

War Service elector voting as civilian

35. (1) Any War Service elector who has not voted in the manner prescribed by these Regulations, and who is in the place of his ordinary residence on polling day at a Dominion election may cast his vote in the manner prescribed by The Dominion Elections Act, 1938, for civilian electors. In such case, however, the War Service elector must be of the full age of twenty-one years, and, in urban polling divisions, his name must appear on the official list of electors used at the poll.

Voting by War Service electors on leave or on furlough

(2) A War Service elector who is absent from his unit, on leave or on furlough, during the voting period prescribed by paragraph 15 (2) of these Regulations, and who has not already voted at the pending general election, may, on production of documentary proof that he is on leave or furlough, cast his vote elsewhere before any commissioned officer of the same Force, designated to take the votes of War Service electors, when such commissioned officer is actually engaged in the taking of such votes.

Voting by merchant seamen, etc.

36. Merchant seamen, Red Cross and St. John Ambulance workers, persons attached to Overseas Forces, and members of the Auxiliary Services, who are qualified to vote at a general election under paragraph 5 of these Regulations, shall cast their votes before any commissioned officer designated for that purpose by the commanding officer of a Canadian Naval, Military or Air Unit. As soon as a general election has been ordered in Canada, it shall be the duty of the special returning officer, wherever necessary, to make arrangements with a commanding officer, conveniently stationed, for the taking of the votes of the above mentioned War Service electors. No such person shall be allowed to vote unless he produces, to the commissioned officer, satisfactory proof of identity and of his qualification as a War Service elector.

Canadians serving in British Forces

37. Every person on Active Service in any of His Majesty's United Kingdom Forces, who enlisted in such Forces subsequent to January 1, 1937, who is a British subject, and was ordinarily residing in Canada prior to his enlistment in such Forces, shall be qualified to vote as a War Service elector under these Regulations, and may cast his vote before any commissioned officer designated to take the votes of War Service electors by the commanding officer of a Canadian Naval, Military or Air Unit, when such commissioned officer is actually engaged in the taking of such votes, on the production to such commissioned officer of satisfactory proof of identity and of his qualification as a War Service elector.
