

THE OLD BREWERY BAY

ORILLIA

I will make later a separate report on the question of the monographs. The Macmillans undertake to publish them provided that we can help them to get a certain amount of (sympathetic) advertising. It is hard to get this.

During the year Mr E. G. G. was ill & absent from work for some six weeks, and Professor Farthing for half the year. We carried on their work by rearranging classes as best we could with no outside help beyond about $80 a month in tutorial fees over & above the regular salaries.

Mr E. G. G. resigned his position at the
