QUEBEC, April 1st, 1932.

Dear Mr. LeMesurier:-

I am forwarding you under separate cover the theses written by Messrs. Nicholls, and Slapack.

Please excuse my having kept them so long. I was anxious to examine them carefully---this is what I have done and have derived great pleasure and profit in doing so. They are both of great worth as I have already told Judge Survever. At first I drew particular attention to Slapack's work as the material seemed to be more carefully classified, but all factors considered Mr. Nicholl's appears the better. There should be no haggling over the congratulations to either of them, nor, I repeat, to the masters whose remarkable disciples they are.

I am very grateful for the communication of these fine studies.

With kindest regards,

The Dean of the Faculty of Law,

FERDINAND ROY.
