

agriculture their life work for the future. We must provide abundance of room on those farms for the stream of war-worn European immigrants with agricultural inclinations which will be sure to come to us. When they have given evidence of their suitability for farm work, we must assist them to get properly located that they may at once become producers. The government will be ready in every desirable country in the civilized world to attract desirable immigrants to our shore. Then as to industry, the government have another great responsibility to see that there will be no gap in our industrial activities at the signing of peace. The government must see to it that the wheels of development must whirl on. The government are already endeavoring to find out how much of the merchandise we have paid others to make for us can be made profitably by our own people. What the government asks of the people is to assist in the task of getting ready. We believe now is the time to commence getting ready. We also believe this to be Canada's greatest opportunity of a generation, and perhaps of a century. We are determined that our preparations for peace will be intelligent and earnest, so that in a few years we will be better off than ever before, believing, as we do, that a few millions spent on intelligent preparation for peace will enable our country and her people to reap untold millions through the long future.
