New Stiff Hats for Men--American and English Blocks

This display of new Hats will give men opportunity to acquaint themselves with the shapes that will be most worn this spring. The selection is quite varied, providing ample choice for different requirements and tastes. The hats we have mentioned are of jet black fur felt, and are finished with silk trimmings and cushion leather sweat bands. All riced at 2.00

A New York block has a well rounded crown of medium height, neat pencil edge roll im and bands with bow on quarter. This hat is very popular with young men.

A more moderate style, in a well-known English make, is of similar block, but has heavier roll to the rim and is finished with the bow on the side.

A Dressy Hat, stylish but not extreme, is of Battersby's make. Has a fairly high, rather squarely cut crown and has moderate, neat curl rim.

For big men, an especially fine Hat is made with large orim and crown, in medium to large sizes. Main Floor-James St.

CAMELS COMING TO TORONTO ZOO

Pair Donated Thru the Good Offices of Daniel Lamb.

There was fun in the parks and exhibition committee yesterday when Ald. Robbins announced that a herd of camels would be landed in New York this week and that Superintendent Good should go there to select a pair. The pair is donated thru the good offices of Daniel Lamb.

"I move that Ald. D. Spence go along and ride the camels back," Ald. Maruire said.

"Where will the camels be kept?" Md. Ryding asked. "We have a place for them," Ald. lobbins replied, "and it is not like the mammal house, which is falling down. wo bears escaped from the mammal The camels are worth $600," Com-sioner Chambers said, "and it will cost the city $50 to bring them from New York."

DRIVE SPARROWS It was decided to send Superinten-dent Good after the camels.
