LOOK OUT FOR ARGOS PRIZES PRESENTED IS OTTAWA SLOGAN PLAYGROUNDS BOYS

Shag's Crew Dubious About Medals, Banners and Pennants Came With Scullers-Balmy Beach's Honor Roll.

both entered in the junior Intercollegiate Rugby Union.

There is no doubt the Ottawa backs have been transgressing in failure to return kicks. The one big rule in Canadian footbahl is boot the ball where your wings are. In an exchange of kicks it is the team that is in the territory of the other fellow's backfield when punts are dropping that scores.

Ottawa Free Press: It has been as far back as 1909 since Ottawa won a game from Argonauts in Toronto. Two years ago the red, white and black played a tie with the oarsmen, darkness causing a cessation and a wrangle. This tie was replaye at the end of the season and Argos save the Senators a bad grueling and euchered them from a tie with Hamilton for the championship. The old jinx might be overcome this week end, but it looks a stiff game. Argos have lost a brace to Tigers already and by decisive scores, but nevertheless the oarsmen are a strong aggregation and they have the happy faculty of playing exceptionally good football when opposed to Ottawa. Shag is pessimistic over his team's chances, believing they have not developed the team work necessary and unless it comes between now and Saturday, doesn't figure he can win. All of which indicates the red, white and black will give the soullers an awful battile. Shaughnessy by the way banks on team work and concerted play. Big men, medium fellows or runts, he figures if the fourteen players get into every play, they can't lose. He demonstrated this with his diminutive McGill squad last year when that team, out-weighted twenty pounds to the man, busted Varsity's line when on attack and held the bigger men like a stone wall when on defence. His aggregation worked like a machine and when a couple of the cogs were removed thru injury, it gave Varsity the only chance she had to win.

Ross Craig is fast rounding into shape. While a couple of weeks' more hard training would do him a lot of good, he is in there working. However, the best line plunger in the game cannot ward off half a dozen huskles of the calibre of the double blue and get away. Craig got aways for from two to eight yards on every buck last Saturday, but he did not get the right support. With Coach Ripley having Caffrey, Spence, Coates, Smith, Gatenby, Flannery and Mike McNeilly to choose from to get in there with Craig, it is hoped that the breach will be filled. Even gt that, if Jack Grey could only see his way clear to get into the game the line would be greatly reinforced and would have a much better chance of winning next Saturday.

Ottawa si sending out the S. O. S. call before the good ship Senator has even sprung a leak. Shag says he will have to make a change in the scrimmage. McCaffery and Willis will probably be playing. Ingram is out with staved ribs. and Guilty has blood-poisoning in the elbow. "If I could get team work on the line and have my backs return kicks at the proper time, I wouldn't worry," says Shag. "There is far too much individual play on this team to figure as a winner."

There are six teams left in the junior O. R. F. U. competition: St. Thomas C. T., University Schools of Toronto, London, Sarnia, Galt and Guelbh. The first two play off the semi-final. London v. Sarnia and Galt v. Guelph will play down to the other semi-final.

Glad Murphy's condition yesterday was reported just about the same. He had a fairly good day and at midnight was resting easily. A talk to the nurses in the corridors at St. Michael's shows that they have no more than a ray of hope for the recovery of the good athlete.

The Argonaut team for Saturday's game was selected last night after a rattling good practice: Flying wing, Brophy; halves, Garrett, O'Connor. O'Flaherty; quarter, Heintzman; scrimmage, Polson, Horner, Dopp; inside, Sullivan, Bryans; middle, Patterson, Foster; outside, Knight, Sheehy. The first subsare: Mills, quarter, and Burns, outside wing. The Argos will have very few subs on the side lines at Rosedale as the intermediates have a game on themselves.

O'LOUGHLIN'S NAME DID NOT COMMAND RESPECT

Umpire Silk O'Loughlin was caught in the mob before Braves' Field prior to the Tuesday world's series game, and after struggling helplessly for three-quarters of an hour, besought the assistance of a mounted policeman.

"I'm O'Loughlin, the umpire," said Silk, "and it is absolutely necessary that I get thru this crowd at once. Can't you make a passage for me with your horse?"

"Yes, you're O'Loughlin, all right," sneered the officer. "But the trouble is you belong to too large a family to command my respect. Do you know that over twenty of your older brothers have sprung that song. Just take your time like they did." And the officer refused further to pay the least attention to Sikk's outbursts of wrath.

isn't quite decided as to which of the old cogs to throw away—and which to keep. However, it seems certain that Mathewson and Tesreau will be on the 1916 pitching roster. Ditto for Merkle, Fletcher, Doyle, Burns and Robertson. Stroud, a pitching person, also seems fairly sure of lingering, but there's a lot of doubt as to the others.

Each package is specially labeled as coming from the Toronto lawn bowlers, and will arrive in ample time for distribution among the "boys" at the Christmas season.

in the first round to warrant another trial.

In the mean time Manager James J.

Johnson of the Garden A.C. is bidding for a championship match between Jess Willard and Frank Moran. He hopes to be able to stage this bout early in February. Willard has given every assurance that he will be ready to defend his title by that time provided the terms meet his approval.

Thomas Jones, manager of Jess Willard, interviewed at Dallas, Tex., yesterday, declared that the world's heavy-weight champion would be more than pleased to accommodate the ambitious Moran.

"Jess is just aching to get into the ring and nobody would suit him better than the Pittsburger," declared Jones, will be arranged in New Orleans on Nov. 5."

This statement would indicate that Jones favors a battle in Louisiana rather than in New York. Willard prefers the first fight or what most closely resembles it. Twenty round bouts are permissible in New Orleans.

SAYS N. H. A. HEAD

Emmett Quinn Sure That All Differences Will Be

The Patricks must realize that this would not be the year to increase hockey salaries.

Despatches from Vancouver today, however, back up the statement yesterday that the P.C.H.A. is not altogether satisfied with conditions. Manager Ed. Savage of Portland is quoted as declaring that the trouble began when the eastern association repudiated its agreement with the western circuit by not paying for a player (Lalonde) sold from the west to the east. That money has never been paid. Following this breach of etiquette the eastern association continually put something in the way whenever the western association attempted to draft likely players from the east.

Conditions in the deal generally proved unsatisfactory, and now the Pacific Coast League magnates, says Mr. Savage, are thoroly disgusted with the manner in which they have been treated by the eastern magnates, and he predicts that this winter will see the biggest war ever between the two organizations.

MONTREAL, Oct. 21.—"I do not think there is the slightest possibility of a war between the eastern and western hockey leagues," said President. T. Emmet Quinn of the National Hockey Association this morning. "Our only differences are regarding the drafting of players. The new agreement has been submitted to the Patricks, and altho it has not been signed the western hockey heads have expressed their approval, and there is little doubt but that it will be signed. The Patricks must realize that this would not be the year to increase hockey salaries.

TO PEOPLE IN PARIS

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—John J. Carty, engineer of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., has today received a cablegram from H. E. Shreeve that wireless telephone messages sent out by Bell engineers from the Wireless Station at Arlington, Va., near Washington, were received at the Eiffel Tower in Paris. Satisfactory talk was carried on by means of the apparatus developed under Mr. Carty's direction.

EVERS MISUNDERSTOOD BY BASEBALL FANS Ottawa vs. Argonauts At Rosedale Grounds, Saturday, Oct. 23, at 3 p.m. Seats on sale at Spalding's and Moodey's.

Great Boston Second-Sacker is Aggressive by Nature-Good Off Field.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Johnny Evers is the most misunderstood player in baseball. Instead of being a venomous tongued, unreasonable fellow, he is a true friend, loyal enemy, quick to forgive when anyone has done him injury, and the first to offer amends when he finds he is wrong, in the game or out of it.

"I can't play ball unless I crab," Evers says. He fights everybody in a game, even himself. Frank Chance, who played at first base elongside of Evers for years, used to say: "I wish to heaven my deaf ear was toward the crab." Evers even "rode" Chance when Chance was manager. Chance understood him. Evers does not hate umpires. Off the field he is eager to defend umpires with whom he has had trouble on the field. One season Evers kept after Bill Klem for three months. At the same time he declared Klem to be one of the greatest of umpires.

declared Klem to be one of the greatest of umpires.

Evers gets in bad with umpires, not because he says a lot, but because of the way he says it. His remarks cut.

Evers, too, like some other players, is paying for a past bad reputation. There are some players who have "ridden" umpires so hard the umpires are "laying" for them. Evers has not crabbed as much at Boston as he did when he was with the Cubs, but he is thrown out of games in a hurry, sometimes.

A question at the second annual conference of the home department of the Baptist Sunday schools, which was the Baptist Sunday schools, which was in session yesterday, was the advisability of having the men co-operate with the women in "the home department work." Mrs. Diston of the Walmer Road Baptist Church argued that the men should be made welcome and the women should invite them.
