

mark the deso-
-sink you, sir,
-t blush at our
-s of our early
-strong;" but
-with pleasure
-d so ably our
-lay—for time,
-was, that John
-ead, and that
-ceeps from us
-ew gray hairs
-onsoling our-
-in the decline
-usly act upon
-have already
-glorious sons
-and indignant
-oncluded that
-we will wait
-l probability,
-eailed not in
-y felt that the
-v to arms, and
-war of inde-
-; had listened
-and frightened
-uence on the
-be impressed,
-stead of this,
-umphs of that
-rights.

I do not ex-
-hearts of our
-nts. A large
-of republics.
-ntlemen who ppaired if we

-can win from
-rust into this
-nd in triumph.
-and darkness
-fully through
-y informs us
-eason, history
-d a Scott, and
-l Perrys, and differ on this

-egret it much,
-iar crisis, sir,
-esman, in the