Summer Racing Season Auspiclously Opened at Washington - Ray's Mount Third in 1.17. Steeplechase - Miller Rode

Washington, March 25.-When the bugler ounded the "assembly" at the Bennings racetrack this afternoon, the greatest throng that ever attended the opening of a meeting of the Washington Jockey Club was there. It was a most auspicious opening of the racing season of 1907 in the east. The weather was fine, altho a triffe cool; the track was in fine condition, and the card offered by the club was of the best. The clubhouse was thronged with people well-known in the political and social life of Washington. The feature was the eighth running of the first Bennings spring handicap, worth about $2000 to the winner. Twenty-two norses were carded to start, but scratches reduced the number, and thirteen faced the starter. Patoon was an added starter. The Countries stables drazzallo was made not favorite with Jockey Walter anner up. Okemite, at d to 1, and Rose of Dawn, at 10 to 1, had a strong following, and Shickaway and Tickle had some support, particularly for place and snow. Graziano got away went from the post, easily taking command in the first furiong, with Tickle Okenite and Malacca closely bunched. The horses maintained their positions until the turn into the stretch, when the favorite seemed to weaken. Malacca, rinden admirably, rushand thirteen raced the starter. Platoon wa the stretch, when the favorite seemed to weaken. Malacca, ridden admirably, rushed into the lead, but under the whip Graziallo responded gamely. It was too late, however, and Malacca won by a neck, Slickaway easily taking third. Rose of Dawn, practically left at the post, imished lifth after running around the entire field. Jockey Miller began his season in the east by riding the winners of the irrat two races. He was presented with a sliver cup for riding Anna May, which beat Lord Boanerges a neck in a hard drive.
