BRIGHT'S DISEASE BEATEN AGAIN

Mary Malcolm's Life Was Measured by Days and Hours.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Had Her Able to be Out in a Week.

Another Remarkable Cure Brought Out by the Collingwood and Eglinton Cases.

Toronto, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The interest in medical circles here over the cures of Mrs. Adams of Collingwood, and Mrs. Tuttle, of Eglinton, of Bright's Disease, has been given fresh fuel by another and yet more startling cure of that same terrible ailment. This latest case is that of a young girl, Mary Malcolm, who lives with her parents at 199 Marlborough-avenue, this city.

Death Seemed Sure.

This cure is little short of miraculous. Miss Malcolm was in the clutches of Bright's Disease from May until September, and had sunk so low that her life was measured by days if not by hours. Hope had given place to a certainty of death, and her friends had turned to the sad task of preparing her grave clothes. These last ghastly garments are now in the house, but Mary Malcolm is a strong-hearty maiden who can look on them without even a shudder of fear. Dodd's Kidney Pills effected the change. Here is the story as told by the girl's mother, Mrs. W. Malcolm:

"My daughter, Mary, who is now fourteen years old, was taken suddenly ill with Bright's Disease in May, 1902. We had the doctor and continued with him till September, 1902, when he said he could do nothing more for her. She was so swollen with Dropsy as to be almost unrecognizable.

Cure Was Quick.

"From a book dropped in at the door, we learned of Dodd's Kidney Pills and as a last resort determined to try them. They gave her relief from the very beginning, so much so that in one week we were able to take her out to Munro Park for an afternoon.

"After taking four boxes, she was entirely cured and she has never had the slightest relapse. We can never say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills, as they certainly saved my daughter's life."

And Mary, the daughter on whom Bright's Disease had pronounced the sentence of death, now a picture of healthy girlhood, smiled a cheerful assent to her mother's statement and chimed in, "If I am ever sick again I will take nothing but Dodd's Kidney Pills."

It is hardly necessary to add that proof piled on proof has convinced the public that Bright's Disease is curable and that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the cure; that if the disease is of the Kidneys or from the Kidneys the one unfailing remedy is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

the power of office. They wanted it to vindicate their principles.

The Liberals in the Queen's Park had entrenched themselves in office. They took powers from the municipalities, they took license powers and when they found them useless they invented the machine. To-day voting by ballot was a farce. All this was the result of a lust for office. The legislature was merely scheming to distribute patronage. The Liberal party once claimed to be the party of the people. They had become the party of the corporations, and it is the Conservatives who are the people's party. He didn't want to see a dishonorable organization in West York. It was a hard thing for him to say, and he was ashamed to say it; but it had come to this in Ontario, that it was necessary to have two scrutineers in every polling division to have any measure of fairness in an election.

T. F. Wallace, James Bond, John Fisher, W. A. Baird and others addressed the meeting, which closed with cheers.

At the Banquet.

A sumptuous repast was served in the Town Hall after the meeting, which was presided over by George Syme, ex-president, in the absence of Dr. Charlton. A. A. Mahaffy, M.L.A. for Muskoka, gave a capital address, in which he told of the difficulties of running up against a government candidate in a by-election. He attributed his success to the sentiment of the district, which was opposed to barnacles, parasites and heelers.

Major W. Hamilton Merritt and James Bond responded to the toast of "The Army and Navy." Major Merritt congratulated York County Council in its recognizing the importance of the Governor-General's Body Guard. He desired to see the yeomen of York County become as used to rifles as the Boers and to be able to ride a horse as well as they.

J. W. St. John, M.L.A., W. F. Maclean, M.P., Dr. Godfrey, Dr. McNabb and others also gave after-dinner speeches, and the assembly dispersed about 10 o'clock.

East Toronto.

East Toronto, Jan. 29.—The special committee of the Town Council having in charge the proposed agreement between the town and the Globe Manufacturing Company met to-night and recommended a bylaw to issue debentures to the amount of $25,000, $5000 of the proceeds to be used to purchase a site for the erection of the proposed factory buildings and necessary grounds, the remaining $20,000 to be loaned to the company for a term of years at 4 per cent. interest. The agreement, which has yet to be adopted by the Council and ratified by the duly qualified ratepayers, sets forth in detail the undertaking of the company to employ a minimum of eighty hands on the premises, to repay the loan in annual instalments of $1000 each, with interest, and various other matters.

WHENCE COMES THIS MAN'S MYSTERIOUS POWER OVER DEATH?

MIRACULOUS RESCUE FROM THE GRAVE

Woman Threatened With Burial Is Revived and Restored to Health by New York Wonderworker.

HEALS HERETOFORE INCURABLE DISEASES

Doctors Send Him Their Worst Cases, Trying to Find One He Cannot Cure, but He Dumfounds and Mystifies Them All By Miracles of Healing, Which Rival Those of the Ancient Writ.

(From Toledo Blade.)

Benton Harbor, Mich.—(Special Correspondence).—This quiet little city by the lake has been thrown into an intense fever of excitement by Dr. Wallace Hadley, a resident of New York City. Your correspondent made a special trip to New York and called on Dr. Hadley to learn the secret of the mysterious power by which he has created such a furore. The doctor was found at his laboratory, No. 1931 Broadway, surrounded by forty or fifty assistants. "So you have come to learn how I gave life and health to Mrs. Germond," said the doctor in reply to a question put by the reporter. "So your people say it was a miracle, that I possess divine power. Nothing of the kind; I have simply discovered a secret law of nature heretofore unknown to doctors and scientists. Do you see that large glass jar?" said the doctor, pointing to a flagon filled with ruby red liquid that seemed to quiver and vibrate with the tremendous dynamic force it held. "That is the secret of my power. That liquid you see there is life, distilled life, the arch-enemy of disease and death. With it I can cure any disease—aye, I can revive some when life seems to be extinct, but they are not actually dead. Mrs. Germond was not dead. Of course, I know what the doctors said, but the doctors are often wrong. Hundreds of people are buried every year who are not actually dead. It is simply a case of suspended animation. They seem to be dead, but they can be revived with that liquid you see yonder.

"When you consider that my discovery will cure Bright's disease, consumption, cancer and other heretofore incurable diseases, as well as less dangerous ailments, is it any wonder that it will bring the dead back to life in a case of suspended animation? That liquid contains the vital elements of a living being. It makes the heart beat and the brain think. Doctors have heard of my discovery and they have sought out and brought their worst cases to me, thinking they might find one I could not cure. I have completely baffled them all. I have proved my mastery over disease. I have demonstrated that I can cure those at any distance, just as well as those I see personally. This shows the power is not in me, but in my discovery. Here is a letter I just received from Mrs. Laura Fitzpatrick, of No. 1256 South Third-street, St. Louis, Mo. She was practically dead when my treatment reached her. The doctors said her hours on earth were numbered, that there was not the slightest chance for her to live. Many of her relatives and friends had already bidden her a long, last farewell. Yet my discovery saved her, restored her to life, health and strength; and remember that I never even saw her. Read her letter for yourself. You can publish it if you so desire. I have her permission to do this."

The reporter copied the following extracts, word for word, from Mrs. Fitzpatrick's letter:

"I would have been dead had it not been for you. My friends all say that your curing as hopeless a case as mine was a miracle of healing. I had been treated by over thirty doctors, and they pronounced my case incurable, and all failed to do me any lasting benefit. I suffered as no human tongue can tell. I had heart disease, ovarian and womb trouble, catarrh and neuralgia of the stomach, bowels and liver. I had no circulation, my hands and feet were always cold as death. I was constipated, had no appetite and could not sleep. I almost went insane with the agony of the pain and soreness throughout my body. Rheumatism tortured me. In fact, I had nearly every ill flesh is heir to. Then you came to my rescue. Your treatment was a godsend. I wish I could see all the poor, suffering people in this world and beg them for their own sakes to write to you and be made well, as I have been. May God bless you in your efforts to heal the sick is my prayer. My heart is full of gratitude to Him and to you for your wonderful discovery."

"That is a case that was just about as bad as Mrs. Germond's, of Benton Harbor," said the doctor. "By the way, here is a letter from Mrs. Germond, in which she says I saved her from the grave, and there is no doubt in my mind that if it had not been for me they would have buried that poor woman. Of course, I realized I had a tremendous task before me, but I felt sure I could revive her. I had an inward feeling that as soon as she got a sufficient quantity of that liquid you see there in one case death would be cheated of its victim, and so it was.

"I call my discovery Force of Life, because it contains the real force that makes us live, move and have our being. Among other things it contains a large amount of lecithin. Lecithin is a constituent element of your blood, brain and nerves and of every organ and tissue of your body. Take away the lecithin from your system and you will die instantly. Take a small portion of it away and you will be ill near unto death. Lecithin makes life. I make lecithin, but lecithin is only one ingredient of my discovery. No, I have no patent on my process. I could get one, but what's the use? I am not afraid of anyone else making it. Chemists can analyze it and ponder over it all they wish. They cannot make it. The process of manufacture is my secret. I discovered it by accident after years of experimenting."

"Do I understand that you give treatment free to those who are sick?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," said the doctor. "I am doing this now, and I shall continue to do so as long as I can afford it. Force of Life is a very expensive product to manufacture, but many persons are grateful for their cures and send me money. You may tell your readers that if they wish to be healed, no matter how difficult the case, to write me. If they will state the leading symptoms of their troubles I will make a full diagnosis of their diseases and write them fully in regard to the nature of their complaints, the length of time required to effect a cure, etc. I will also prepare and send them, without cost, a course of home treatment exactly suited to their particular cases. I make Force of Life in twenty different strengths and combinations, so as to reach all diseases."

The doctor states that a letter will reach him addressed to Dr. Wallace Hadley, office 12109, No. 1931 Broadway, New York. He is at his office every day except Sunday. Inasmuch as there is no charge for Dr. Hadley's services and that his treatment is harmless, we would urgently request all readers who are ill to test his discovery. We should be glad to have a report of the results obtained in especially difficult cases for publication for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted.

A Bargain in Persian Lamb Coats

That Surpasses All Former Offerings

Two weeks ago we hadn't the least idea that we'd be able to offer this season another sensational bargain in Persian Lamb Coats. Fact of the matter is we practically closed our season with the last offering, but one of the best manufacturers in Canada came to us with a little history of how he happened to have 240 beautiful Persian lamb skins, which he couldn't very well carry over till next year, and expressed a willingness to make these up into women's coats for us at a price that would permit the garments being sold at a figure less by a full third than the actual cash market value. We stipulated that the coats must be made in the very newest styles, and they were—handsome imperial models, blouse front, skirted effect, length of coat mostly 27 inches, full bishop sleeves, finished with silk girdles and cording in military style, rich satin or black brocade silk lining. The Persian is rich, glossy fur, medium curl, Leipsic dye. Two coats are mink trimmed, two stone marten and five are Alaska sable trimmed. You have two full months to wear such a coat yet. If buying in the regular way, the price would be $115, $125 and $135. See the window display. On sale Monday, each 84.50

ABOUT MAIL ORDERS It is altogether likely that some out-of-town customers will be interested in this special coat offering, so our Mail Order Department has arranged to fill any orders that may reach our office by 12 o'clock noon Monday. Out-of-town customers will, of course, have money refunded if they prefer after seeing the coat.

Notice This Notice

FOR seven years past the largest dealers and manufacturers of typewriters have been watching with great interest the development of the demand for visible writing.

IT HAS BEEN invariably noticed that the work of an up-to-date firm must be done upon a machine with the writing always in full view of the operator, if rapidity and accuracy are to be assured.

EVERY YEAR BRINGS the conviction home to the manufacturers of and dealers in blind machines that it is time for a change, and that they must do something to meet the ever-growing popular demand for visible writing.

THIS POPULAR DEMAND was first made apparent when the Underwood was introduced to the business public.

THE UNDERWOOD was the first real visible writer, and since its inception more than one large manufacturer of a blind machine has been forced to go out of business.

The Underwood, against all prophecy, has stood the test of time and hard wear, and to-day stands pre-eminently first.

OUR OFFER

As the value of your old blind machine is rapidly decreasing, and as that value will soon be only half what it is now,

We will allow the present value up to April 1st, 1904, and after that the present figure will be cut in two.
