CITY HALL NOTES. Mayor Little returned today from a business trip to Montreal.

A special meeting of the City Council will be held on Monday evening next to name returning officers and polling booths for the municipal elections. The city clerk has asked the aldermen of each ward to meet and agree beforehand, so as to save confusion and time at the meeting. fusion and time at the meeting. Mr. Walter Gould secured a permit today for the erection of a story and a half bri k dwelling on the north side of Home avenue, between Adelaide and Elizabeth streets, to costs $1,000. The City Council of 1896 holds only one more regular meeting-on Dec. 21. It does not sit in January. No man voting as tenant in the voter still resides in the municipality. The city clerk is issuing instructions to deputy returning officers.

SAVED BY A DREAM.

Castaway's Vision of a Sail Brought Rescue to Three. New York, Dec. 10.-The American brigantine May T. Kimball sailed from Mobile for Guantanamo, Cuba, on Aug. 29. Head winds bothered her, and she was still in the Gulf off Southern Florida on Sept. 22. At one bell of the forenoon watch that day a howling gale jumped out of the south-east. Under naked poles the brigantine ran before it. Soon the seas had charge of her decks, and all hands manned the pumps. The brigantine then began to sink, and everything was cut away. The boats were smash ed to pieces during this proceeding.

An onslaught of destroying waves knocked James Jeffers and two shipmates, Elijah Cash and Peter Madison, all colored, overboard. Though that wave brought them face to face with death, it really saved their lives. The top of the cabin of the vessel had three struggling sailors climbed on it. From it they witnessed the five other members of the crew go down with the vessel. Jeffers is an Episcopalian. He told A true bill was returned against his fellow-castaways that their only chance for life lay in prayer. So Jeffers prayed, and on the second day after the shipwreck Cash and Madison became converted and confessed their sins. For six days the turbulence of the waves did not abate. There was not a minute when the castaways were not half submerged. Many times they were washed off the roof, but regained their raft.
