CHICAGO CUBS TO CURTAIL BETTING AT THEIR PARK

Manager Mitchell Will Not Announce His Pitchers Before Game.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Gambling on baseball games will be curtailed this season, according to officials of the Chicago National League Baseball Club, who have started a movement against the practice. It is claimed that numerous bets are made on the strength of who the opposing pitchers are to be. This year, Manager Fred Mitchell, declared he will not announce his pitchers until the time his batting order is handed to the umpire, just before the Manager Mitchell, whose home is in boston, declared he knows of numerous instances in which the wagers were placed after the pitchers had been selected. He said he also knows of a certain hotel waiter who was paid $5 a day by a gambler for obtaining from the visiting manager the name of the pitcher who was to perform for the visiting club that day visiting club that day.

This movement has advanced from an attempted raid by about 10 per cent of the Canadian expeditionary force on the Dominion treasury to something much more menacing—a get-together campaign by all the returned soldiers to form a political party. The G. W. V. A. has opened its doors to all the soldiers to form a political party. The G. W. V. I don't know just what percentage of the total vote five hundred thousand is, but it is enough to use as a big club on uneasy politicians. The gratuity may be an unreasonable demand, but it will is a lasting entity. It is no secret that the Conservatives are looking forward to the time when Laurier's memory will have lost its magic and Quebec will go about fifty-fity, as it did in Sir John Macdonald's day, or perhaps sixty-forty, as might be expected from a province which becomes more and more a manufacturing community.
